Ada E. Kuj,

To the best teacher I ever had. Thanks for helping me get to know Mr. Nelson. Stay just as easy-to-get-along-with as you are now.

Give the "immature" freshmen as hard a time as you gave us next year.

Love & Kisses, XOXO

Miss Kujala —

To one of the nuttiest teachers I ever had — never change!!!

Good luck and don't beat up too many freshmen. God bless you!

As always

PORTRAIT OF A HIGH SCHOOL

Ferndale High School, Ferndale, Michigan

DEDICATION

Mr. Nelson at graduation.

We are proud to dedicate the 1963 TALON to our distinguished administrator, Mr. Chester E. Nelson.

Dear Joe,

Recently you asked me if I would supply you with a statement concerning our Assistant Principal at Ferndale High School, Mr. Chester E. Nelson.

He is to be remembered by a countless number of students as an Assistant Principal of both Lincoln High School and Ferndale High School. His experience in high school administration was of inestimable value in facilitating the move from the old high school to our new high school and in ironing out many of the details in school operation which are common to the occupation of a new building.

Mr. Nelson has been called upon by teachers and students for assistance in many matters of school operation. The Student Council has, on many occasions, found him a source of great help in carrying out its projects.

When Mr. Nelson leaves his office for retirement at the end of this school year we will lose one of our well-known and highly respected senior staff members. He is so closely identified with our school district, and particularly with our high school, that it is difficult to imagine that he will not be returning in September, 1963.

We wish him many, many years of happiness and we want to express appreciation for his fine services during the past forty years in this school district.

Sincerely,

John J. Houghton,
Supt, of Schools

Mr. Nelson in the military.

FORWARD

High school is like a painting; however, the building itself is only the frame. It is certainly much more than this. The most important parts of a high school are its people and what they do.

Its administration and faculty are the artists with their magnificent creation being the education of the pupils. The students are the models, posing in the classrooms to acquire new knowledge in many subjects. The athletics with all their excitement, spirit, and action make up the color. The many varied activities, from ski club to American Field Service, from pep assemblies to unit room, compose the background.

With this 1963 TALON, we have created for the student body a necessarily small but meaningful part of this high school picture. We have attempted a very difficult task – to capture this singular and wonderful school experience.

Artists and Models

The most important part of any school is the people who belong to it. The administration and faculty are indeed artists in their respective fields. They help to mold the character as well as the academic abilities of their pupils. The students are therefore models. Whether sitting in classrooms or taking part in activities, they are constantly observing the skill of their teachers or advisors.

A high school is almost void without its artists and models. The people fill in the hollowness, creating a place where it is enjoyable and beneficial to work and play.

ADMINISTRATION

MR. JOHN D. McGREGOR
Principal

MR. CHESTER E. NELSON
Assistant Principal

MR. FRED WAGNER
Assistant Principal

It's time some recognition was given to our administration and its right hand group, the office staff. Little do we realize just how much tedious work and responsibility is involved in running a school such as Ferndale High. From building maintenance to student placement, from cafeteria food to faculty meetings, though not always directly in charge, our principal and assistant principals do hold places of grave importance. In turn they are held completely responsible for all operations concerned with the school, its employees, and its students.

The office staff also plays an important role in student affairs. Among the many tasks of the staff are bookkeeping, check signing, typing, and a million other odd jobs . . . the most outstanding of which is the promotion of good student relations. As Mrs. Fleharty stated, "We're nice to everyone because we love 'em all."

MR. HAROLD VROMAN MISS BONITA WENTLAND

Counselors do much more than write excuses:

C is for capable
O is for open-minded
U is for understanding
N is for needed
S is for sincere
E is for enthusiastic
L is for loyal
O is for outstanding
R is for reliable
S is for sympathetic

These are the characteristics of our counselors. They are dedicated to helping students adjust to their high school years. We owe them a great deal and thank them for their cooperation.

KITCHEN STAFF

Ever needed a ladder? Walked through a window? Dropped your lunch on the floor? If so, you might have noticed the men in the gray coats who began to congregate around you. These friendly, co-operative, and patient men are members of Ferndale's custodial staff. Functioning for the most part behind the scenes, they play a most important part in the efficient way the school is run.

Have you also noticed the variety in the lunches served in our cafeteria? Have you noticed that always served with your lunch is a friendly smile or a cheery word? These are only some of the virtues of the kitchen staff that operates our cafeteria so well. We owe much to our F.H.S. kitchen staff.

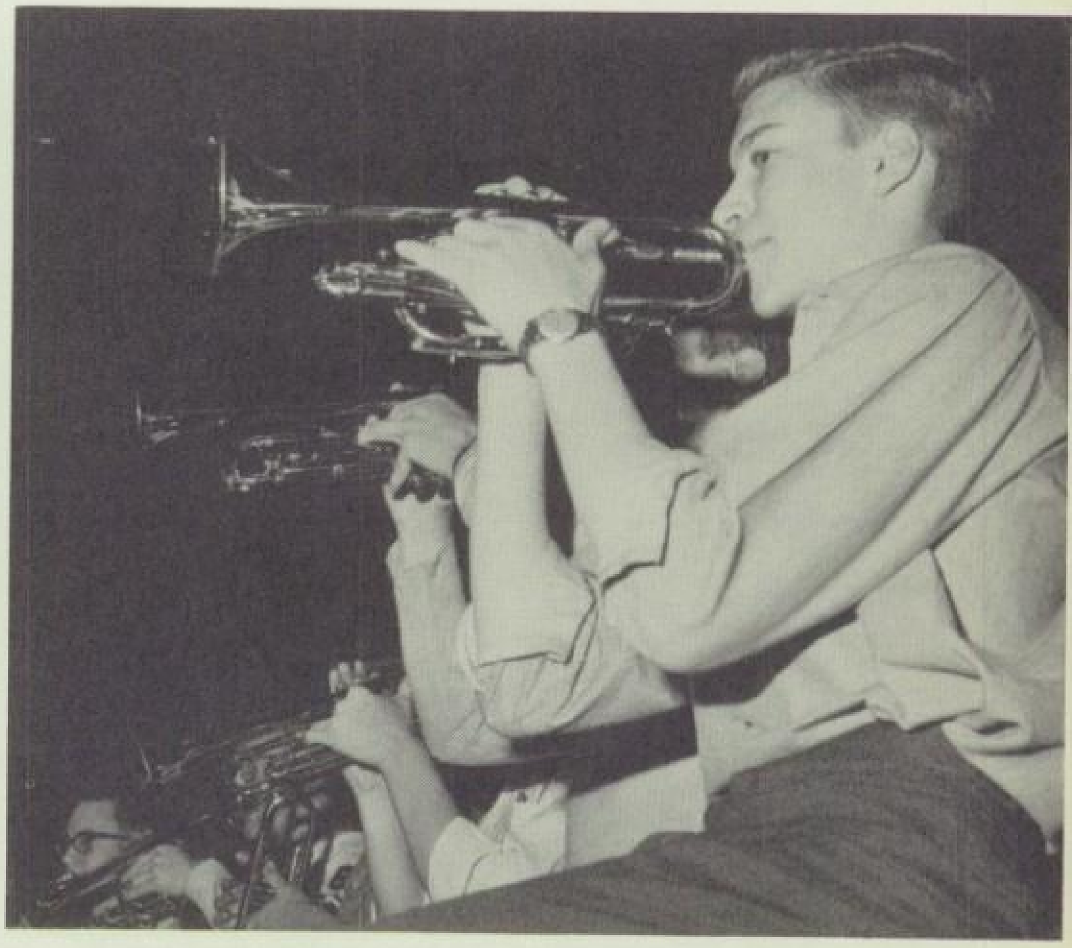
"Hold that note thiiiiis long."



"This will at least get me a job at a race track."

FINE AND APPLIED ARTS

Mrs. Helen, McCarthy, Mr. Walter Boho, Mr. Richard Deardorff, Mrs. Gayle Willingham, Mr. Morris Beider, Mr. Kennedy, Miss Elizabeth Smith, Mr. John Takis. Standing: Mr. Roger Cherry, Mr. Robert Lakin.

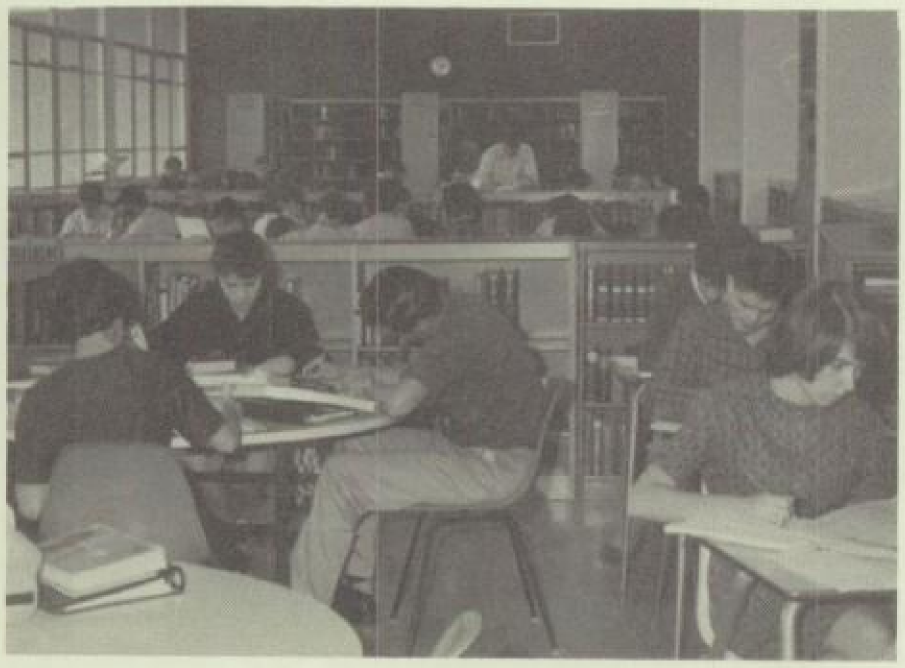
"It took me four years to learn to draw a circle."

Many of our future's greatest artists are being molded by Ferndale's Fine Arts Department. The creative works exhibited in our galleries come from some of the finest student painters and carpenters and point toward promising careers which many of our students should be encouraged to pursue.

Who are behind these fine young artists pushing them onward and upward toward fame? It is to a great extent our own fine arts teachers.

LIBRARIANS

Mrs. Iva Pollefeyt, Mrs. Dorothy Markle, Mrs. Gita Raymer.



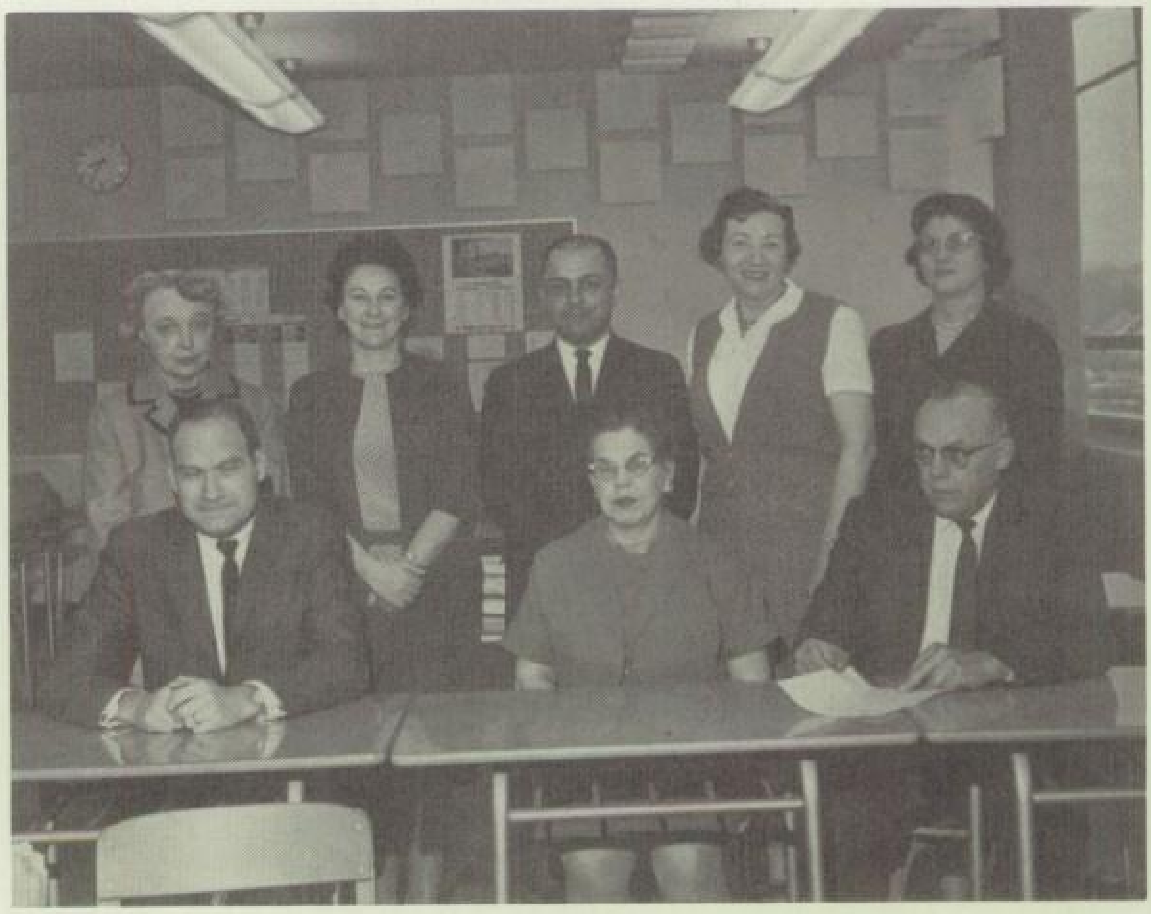
PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Even President Kennedy would be overwhelmed with enthusiasm in viewing the Ferndale High School super spectacular Physical Education Department tediously striving to keep us physically fit. His eyes would bulge as he previewed the variety of activities the department has to offer. He would admire the wonderful and generous staff of teachers and their grateful and appreciative students working under them to keep the stop watches from stopping and President Kennedy from complaining!

1st row: Miss Margaret Burton, Miss Lemoyne Markham, Mrs. Margaret Frye
2nd row: Mr. Thomas Parry, Mr. Roy Burkhart, Mr. Gerrit Grandt, Mr. Gus Hanson, Mr. Ted Meister, Mr. Wallace Carl, Mr. Frank Joranko

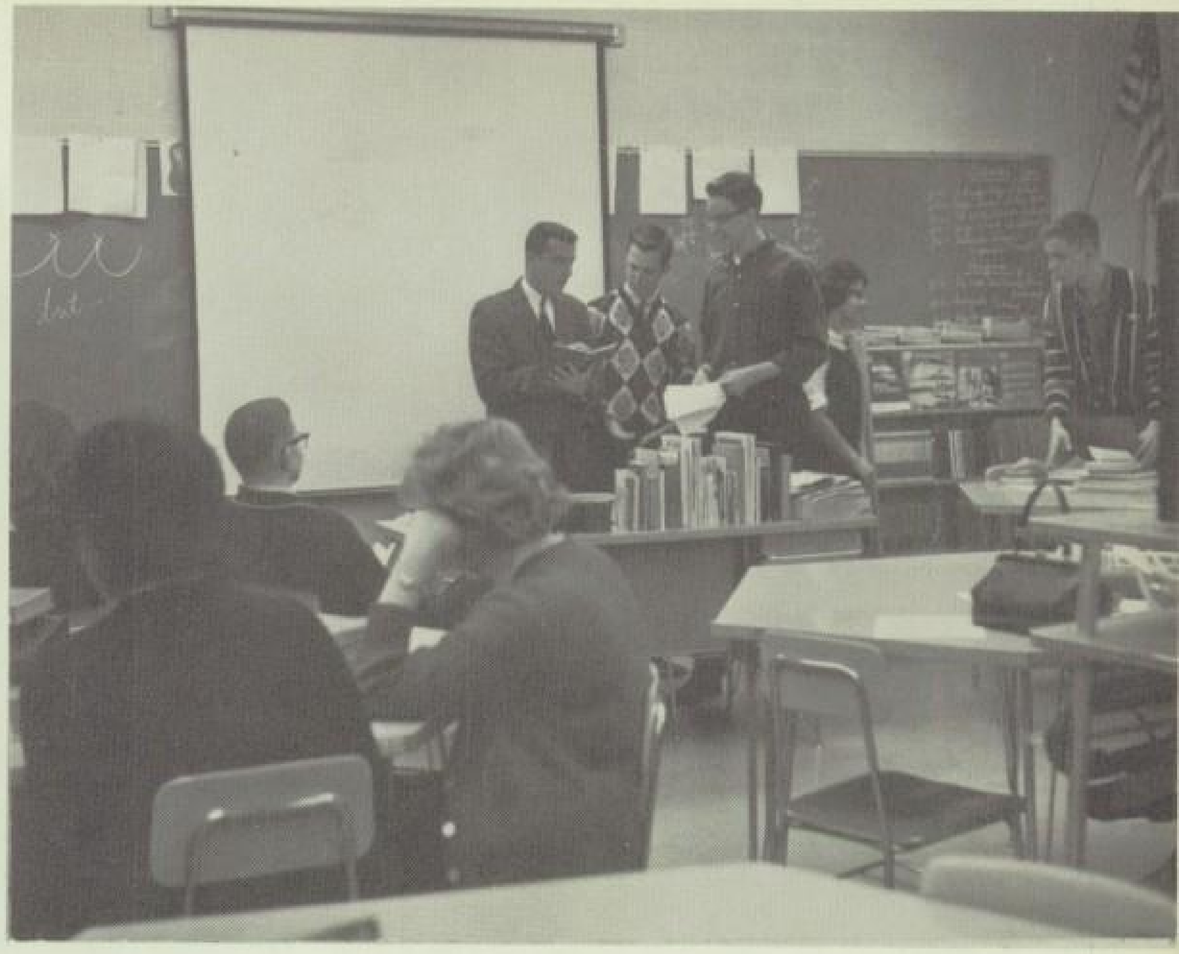
COMMERCIAL

Clickety clack, clickety clack, is the easy rhythm of that wonderful invention the typewriter. That's the way it sounds in the corridors just outside our commercial classrooms. Besides typing there are courses in shorthand, bookkeeping, and business machines. The Commercial Department is also responsible for the high school's Co-op program. The courses offered by this most valuable department are essential in preparing students who intend to work following graduation.



1st row: Mr. Irving Rosen, Miss Florence Warren, Mr. Ensley Hubel. 2nd row: Miss Bernice Cady, Mrs. Dorothy Kosovac, Mr. John Clark, Mrs. Dorothea Frazier, Mrs. Helen Sturdevant.

That English gets me every time.



"Everyone in the world is crazy except us."

Shakespeare, gerunds, Poe, and parsing, these are only a few examples of the variety of subjects that come under the heading of English. This department has a tremendous job to do in preparing Ferndale High's students both literally and grammatically for future endeavors. Always striving to improve the method of teaching and curriculum these teachers deserve an A+ rating as far as effort and results are concerned.

"Pilot to co-pilot."

"E Pluribus WIXIE."

LANGUAGE

Ferndale High School has a large and excellent anguage Department. Spanish, French and German present the ever-popular modern languages while atin holds its own as a classic. Our language teach-s are highly skilled in their respective fields. They fer each student every opportunity to learn. Lan-uages play an important part in academic schedules d are a source of pleasure to all. Ferndale owes e Language Department a lot of appreciation, and is is the best way we can show it: Merci! Danke hon! Gracias!

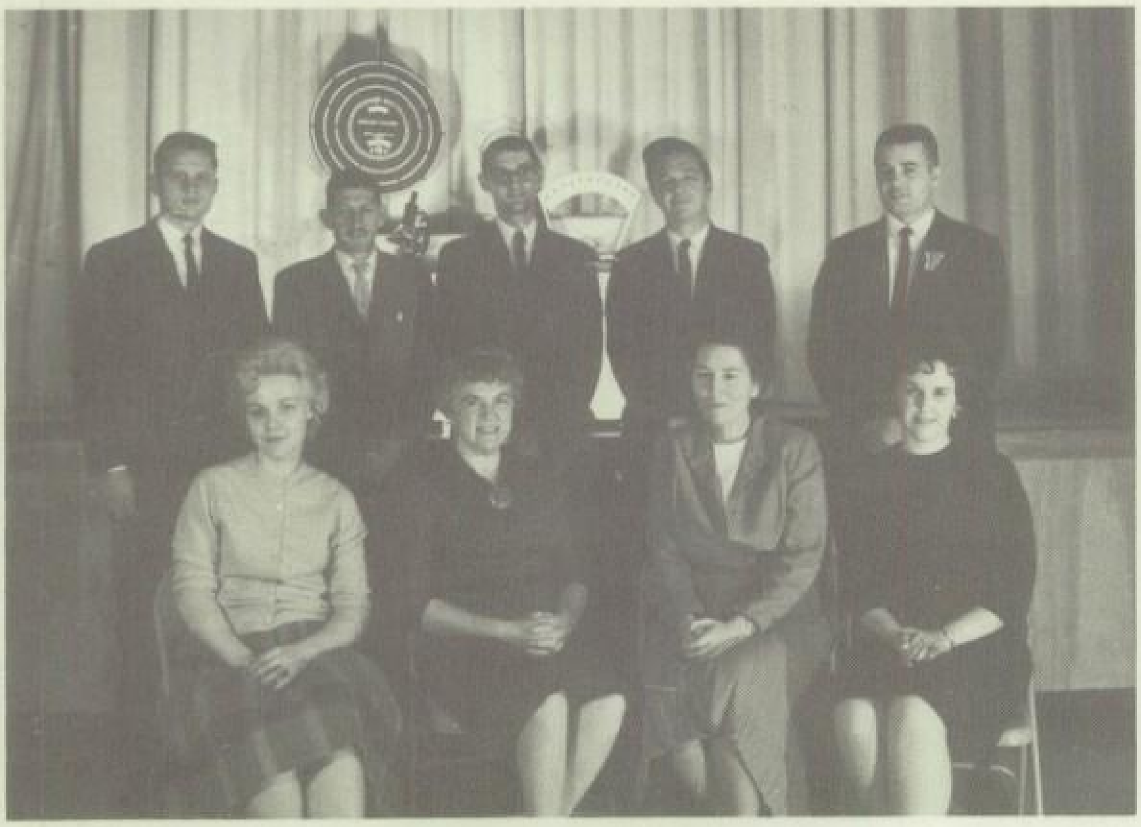
SCIENCE



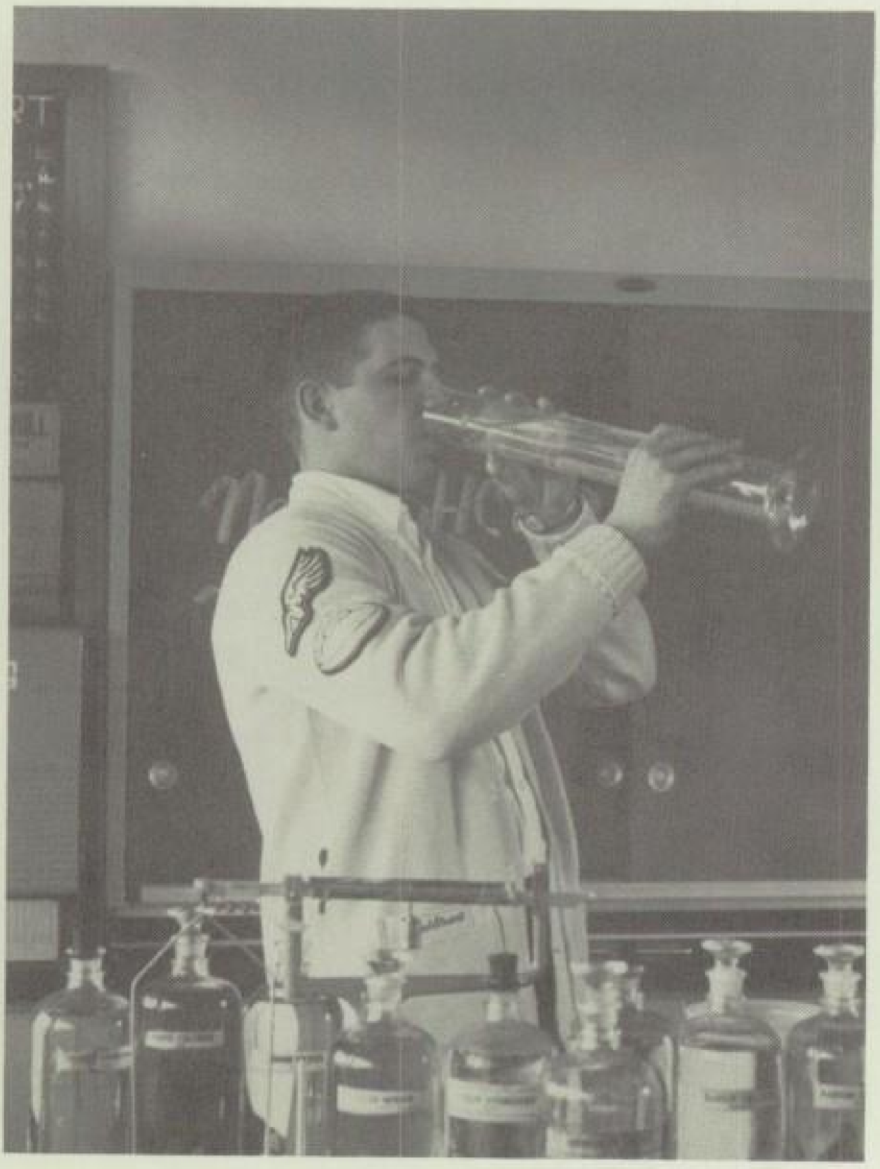
1st row: Miss Judith Lantto, Mrs. Ruth Dunham, Miss Ruth Heppel, Mrs. Helen Wiley
2nd row: Mr. Allen Bidol, Mr. Harold Kreider, Mr. James Munson, Mr. Joseph Maguire, Mr. Paul Tague

Words like magnitude, photon, centromere, paramecium, and formula are distinguishable to only a few of Ferndale High's more industrious science students. From dissection to light measurement our science department is one of the best our country has to offer. Our instructors are on the job all day long attempting to teach us some of the most fascinating wonders of the scientific world. These dedicated teachers deserve our utmost appreciation and respect.

"What are bananas doing on the rubber tree?"

"You should see the one that got away!"

"I thought P T was here today."



"It makes me run faster."

SOCIAL STUDIES

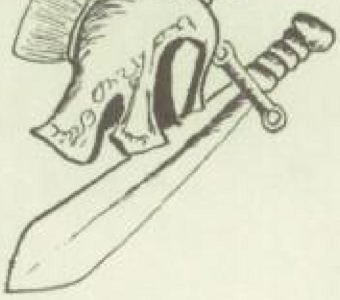
2nd row: Mr. Edward Sash, Mrs. Thomas Parry, Mr. Robert O'Hara, Mr. William Coyne, Mr. Wendell Kelly, Mr. Zigmund Niparko, Mr. Don McNeil

"Readin', and 'ritin', and 'rithmetic taught to the tune of the hickory stick." Well, times have changed and the field of social studies now takes its place on the list of other important subjects. These courses from world history to civics help to inform the student of the past, present, and even the future of the world around him. Thanks to the curriculum offered by our Social Studies Department and our many dedicated teachers today's student has the opportunity to grow in the knowledge of the ages.



"They kicked me out of class."

CAPTURED ON CANVAS

"Who made that crack about the Student Council?"

"Hey, I've got a class this hour."

"Get out of that tuba."

"I told you not to come until I've had my coffee."

"Ooo, that smarts."

The Zero Hour

(In our school the punishment for breaking school rules is making the student start school one hour earlier in the morning than usual.)

Between the dark and daylight,
When the day is beginning to flower,
Comes the start of the day's occupations,
That is known as the Zero Hour.

I hear in the aisle beside me,
The clamor of cleats and heels,
As the student sits down behind me,
I know precisely how he feels.

Are we to stand for this grave injustice,
Because for class we were somewhat late?
It was not my choice I assure you,
To be given an hour to meditate.

From my study I see before me,
The teacher presenting a stern look,
It's because of his harsh disapprovals
I've decided to study my book.

A sudden whisper and then a silence,
Yet I know by the gleaming eyes,
They are plotting to escape from punishment –
A plan dependent upon surprise.

Yet we are all caught fast in the fortress;
We are captives beyond reprieve;
We are locked in the chamber of torture,
To make us behave or leave.

And here they will keep us forever
Yes, forever night and day;
Until the building shall crumble to ruin,
And, with it, we will moulder away.

"My big feet always get in the way."

"Don't strain yourself."

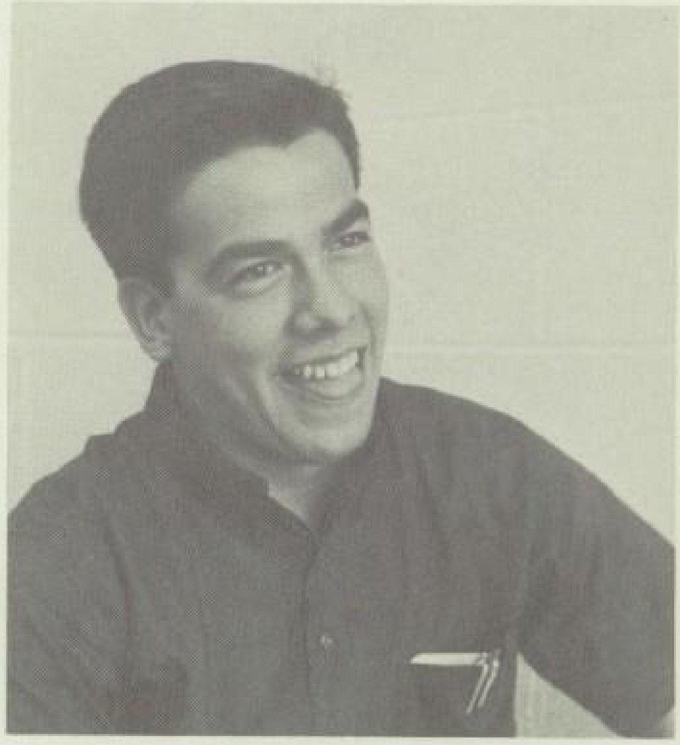
I'm far from being bored at Ferndale High School. Since the first day I started this school year I knew myself how the studies would be. My learning was hard with unknown people, besides my not being able to speak English. But after my first day I knew already the help that the American friends would supply to me and indeed they did. I'm still admiring and dreaming what a big school Ferndale High is with its staffs of teachers, with the student council, pupils, orchestra, band, football team, basketball team, library, gym, and the principal's office, my counselor. In other words I've liked everything from Ferndale High. "Believe me friends" I've never felt and seen such a beautiful school and fine friends as Ferndale showed me.

My principal reason for coming here was to learn English and to know different people and beautiful lands other than my own. The results were good and acceptable. I acquired a basic knowledge of English and I got to know the people, life, education, amusements, governments and other things that the American people have.

"They call that stuff . . .



. . . in the cafeteria 'food'?

Who are they trying to kid?"

New York is quite the largest city I've ever seen. That was my first impression of the U.S. and I still think in terms of size, everything here is on a much larger scale than at home. In fact I shall probably be horribly blase about big American cars when I get back to the Volkswagens and other European cars in South Africa.

One thing which shocked me on arrival here was the discovery that we have only 30 minutes for lunch at school as compared to one hour and fifteen minutes in S.A. But by now I am used to the eternal rush and don't even feel dismayed when I can barely find time to write home. I was also shocked to hear that there was going to be snow for four and a half months this winter, but never having seen it before, it is a new, exciting experience, and I just adore skiing and skating (in spite of the bruises!).

Other new things are television, pizza, cottage cheese, football, and Fall. Your trees are all so beautiful in the Fall – I wish I could be here to see them again this year. Pizza is terrific, and I just love cottage cheese because it isn't fattening. But I don't love T.V. commercials. Holy Toledo, do you ever have a lot of them! I do like Lucy Ball, Troy Donahue, and Dick Van Dyck, and others, however, and of course my fellow countryman, Gary Player.

Americans are very hospitable I find, and everyone has really been good to me. In fact, I've probably turned into a spoiled brat because of all the attention I've had. But all the same, thank you, all of you, for helping to make this a memorable and wonderful year for me.

"No, this is for me!"

I guess my first impression of the United States was an unusual one. Who enters a foreign country at 2 o'clock in the morning at an airport??! Besides some of the exchange students, of course! I walked out of the Metropolitan Airport and put my suitcase in a trunk of my parents' car. It simply disappeared in it! I think American cars are a "little" bigger than European ones. Talking about cars, I'm amazed at all the automatic equipment you have here in America, especially the dishwasher – in Germany I had to do the dishes.

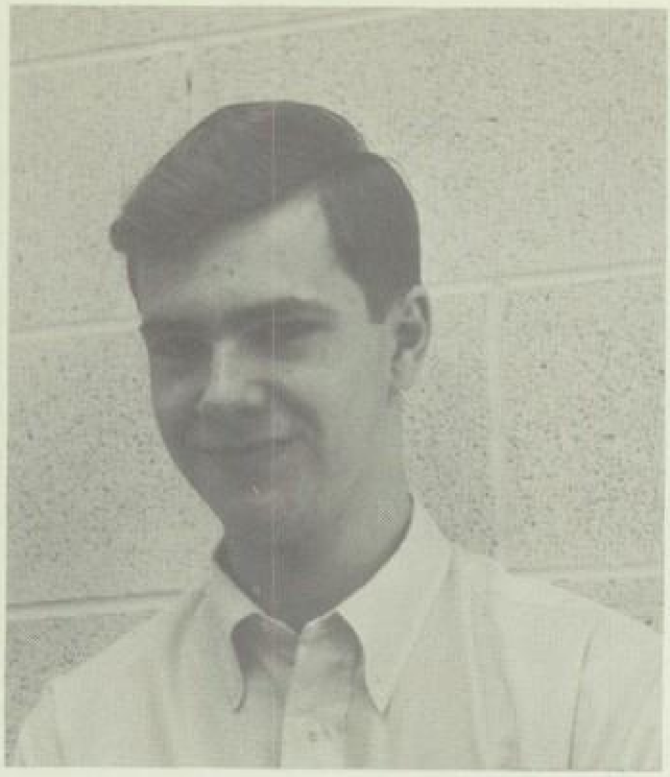
During the first days of my stay, when driving in a car, I never knew where I was. Everything is so big here and every street looked the same, or did it?

One of the funniest experiences was related to my great interest in skiing. On a trip up North my parents showed me the mountains where the Ski Club skis. I didn't even see any hill! Oh well, later I found that it is much fun to ski down a hill in 20 seconds. In Europe it took me about 45 minutes to go down the mountainside. My favorite American food is hamburgers. Maybe because in Germany my home town is Hamburg?

I'm really glad that I was able to attend Ferndale High. In Germany your teachers, especially the older ones, are usually your enemies. You try to fight them, and to take advantage of them. But here the teachers are your friends with whom you can discuss your problems. There is a certain mutual understanding between teachers and students which I like so much.

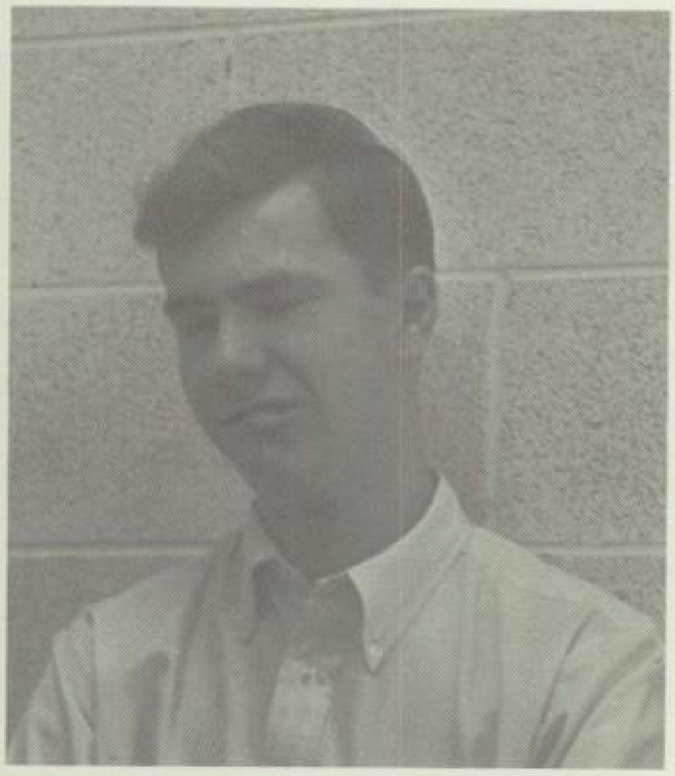
You can be proud of your fine high school, that magnificent building, and the good opportunity to learn. In Germany only the smartest students attend high school, and the school-spirit is limited to the class which consists of about 20 students who have the same schedule. I thought American students would appreciate their good chance to learn things more than they do because they all have the opportunity to go to high school. I think your system of having extra-curricular activities is just great. I hope that I can take some of the great ideas you have at Ferndale with me to my German high school as possible suggestions for making it a better school. It certainly is a wonderful experience and a good opportunity to be an exchange student, especially at Ferndale High with its friendly students and teachers who, together with my American parents, made my stay what it was: a great year full of understanding and friendship.

Stephan's family, Dr. and Mrs. Hiller, Stephan, Wendy, Pat, and Pepper.



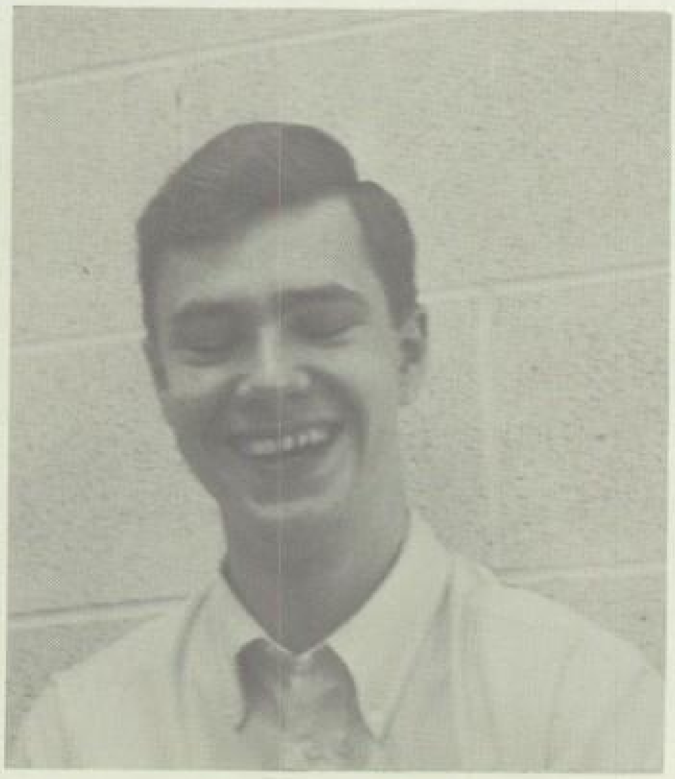
"American girls are . . ."

"No, I'm not busy Saturday night."



. well, on second thought . . .

Stephan Luwald



. . . great!"

GERMANY

"Well, . . ."

"I'd love to."

"A drive-in?"

I still remember my first day in Ferndale High School. Everything was so strange and new. I had a hard time finding my way around. Like a "frosh" I was standing in the halls with the ground-plan of the school in my hands, trying to figure out the shortest way to my class. Of course, I could have asked for help, but somehow it seemed stupid to me to ask: "Could you please show me the way to the library or the commons?" Seeing the kids hurrying up and down the halls confused me completely, and I was afraid I would be late for my classes. But somehow this never happened and I got safely from one room to the other. Lunch hour was a new experience, too. Being used to having about two hours off at home, it took quite a while to get accustomed to a sandwich in twenty minutes.

Now I feel very much at home at Ferndale; I feel so much at home that I don't want to leave. But . . .

Everybody was and still is so friendly and tried to make me feel comfortable. I really never had the feeling of being lost. I think hospitality is a typical American characteristic.

I like Ferndale High School very much. I think it is the greatest school in Michigan and the whole United States (as you see I've been taught what school spirit is). I enjoy all the outside activities such as clubs, student government, games, and dances. We don't have any of this in Switzerland and I know that I am going to miss it very much.

The only two things I don't like about America are root beer (it tastes like tooth paste) and the T.V. commercials. But these are just minor things.

Talking about school again I would say that I enjoy school much more here than I did at home. In Swiss schools you work and that is about it. The relations between teachers and students are very different too. At home we fight the teachers with chalk and sponges. Here they are like older friends who try to help you.

The last day in school will be a very sad day. Already I feel bad when I think that I will have to leave all these things I have grown to like so much.

I will never forget how wonderful it was to be an exchange student in such a great country and in such a marvelous school. I am so grateful to everybody, especially to my American parents and sisters and to my fellow students who made my stay here such a great success and an unforgetable experience.

People crowd into football stands while rugged players almost gracefully perform their military-like exercises. The roar of the basketball crowd increases as it echoes throughout the gym. Brooks to Hicks—score! Treeful pants wearily as he again wins first in cross country. Stenback goes off the diving board with unequaled finesse. Durocher seems to glide over the high-jump bar. Stitt stuns his tennis opponent with a dazzling ace on service. Rinehart smashes a stinging line drive to center. Brooks sinks a long, curving putt.

Sports are indeed the color of the portrait of a high school.

THE YEAR OF THE EAGLE

THE COACH OF THE YEAR, FRANK JORANKO

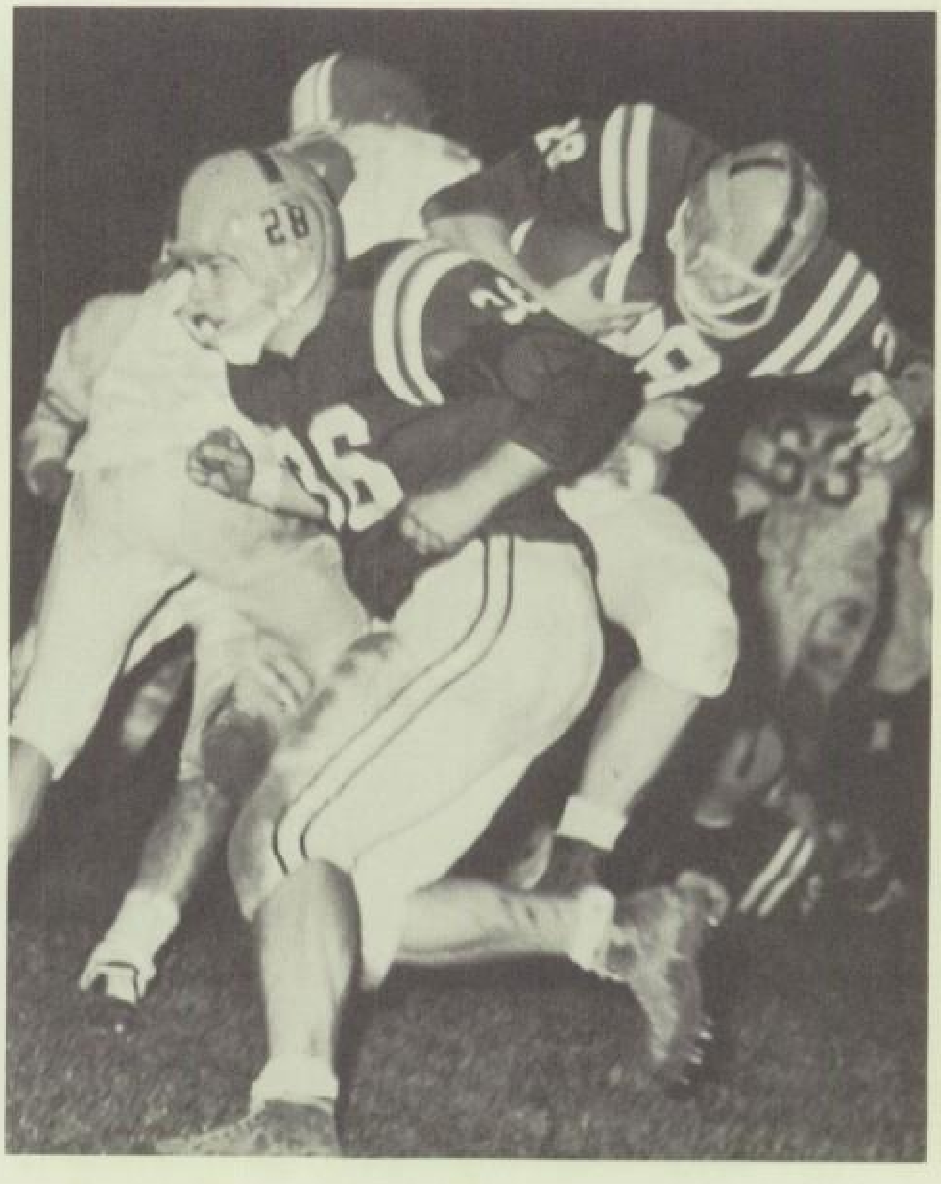
Another title, another All-Stater, and another Coach of the Year. All of these are becoming habits for Ferndale's gridiron gargantuans. The Eagles won the EML title for the third time in four years, while Bob Dechow became Ferndale's third All-Stater in the past three seasons, and Coach Frank Joranko snatched Coach of the Year honors.

Co-Captains Tom Forsythe and Bob Dechow led the squad to a number three ranking in the state with an 8 to 1 record. The Eagles tallied 199 points while holding the opposition to only 67.

Offensive standouts were backs Chuck Rinehart, Jeff Hicks, Bob Super, and Tom Forsythe. The hard running quartet smashed foe after foe with their slam bang style. Clearing the backs were Chuck Covetz, Larry Kraemer, Joe Orloff, and All State honorable mention player Paul Seeley.

Opponents cringed before the awesome defense put up by Ferndale. Led by Bob Dechow, Jim Yezak, George Brown, Bruce Thomas, and Bruce Rodwan the defenders were devastating.

The mastermind behind this championship effort was the Eagles' head mentor, Coach of the Year Joranko. His two season record of 15-2-1 certainly shows that he earned the honor.



Tight squeeze!

Mr. McGregor crowns the queen, Diane Tregoning.

The football game is indeed exciting. When there is a float parade, a lovely court, and a radiant queen, the crowd is also entertained by a unique display of beauty and gaiety. This is homecoming when Ferndale High's alumni get their chance to again see their alma mater.

This year's festivities treated the grads to a variety of ingenious floats based on the theme, "song titles." Included were a "Showboat," Surrey with the Fringe on Top," and a "Four Leaf Clover." The crowning of queen, Dianne Trigoning, enhanced a truly enjoyable evening.

INSPIRATION

Fly high (well almost) for Ferndale.

No matter if our teams win or lose, there is always a group of girls at the games keeping up the school spirit. These girls are the cheerleaders.

Practicing two days a week, these vivacious students strive for perfection in their routines and are constantly thinking of new cheers and ideas to aid our athletic teams.

They put more joy in our victories and some solace in our defeats . . . . They are truly inspiration.

And the game hasn't even started yet.

"Okay, on the count of three!"

"Who should we burn in effigy tonight?"

"We are the Eagles, mighty, mighty, mighty Eagles . . ." chants our stupendous effervescent, cheering crowds.

Every basketball or football game is packed to the seams. Our victory-minded cheerers are bound and determined to lead us on to every EML championship available.

Torn up newspaper, IBM punched circles, streamers, horns, and bells build the noise of our crowds up to a fever pitch. When we pull the game our way, chaos lets loose.

As our year comes to a close school spirit doesn't cease. It will always remain in the hearts of those who attended good old F.H.S.

THE WATER BOYS

Snap!

Down in the damp atmosphere of the pool lurks another member of Ferndale's impressive athletic cast, the swimming team. These hard working amphibians saw their labors pay dividends in the form of a third place finish in the EML.

The Eagles were a tough squad for any team to handle even in the power-packed EML. And powerful the league was with some of the state's best teams on Ferndale's card.

Coach Ted Meister's crew, led by co-captains Tom Stenback and John Stutterheim, raced to a 7-7 record on their way to the third place finish. Buck Montgomery, Al David, Dan Loncar, Dave Thomas, and Chuck Stenback were among the more outstanding on the team.

Stenback topped all by winning the EML diving crown and taking a fourth place finish in the state meet.

CHAMPS

Championships have been common for Ferndale cage teams, but no year has ever been like 1963. The Eagles hit the heights of high school basketball by capturing the biggest title of them all, the Michigan Class A crown.

It was the best season ever, 22-0, by the best team ever. This classy quintet didn't have the individual stars of past squads, but they knew how to play as a team and it took them to the top.

Ferndale was tall and tough and didn't give an inch to anyone. Neither did they ever think of losing; they knew they could go all the way, and that was all that counted.

Seniors Truman McNeal, Don Brooks, and Jeff Hicks helped lead the fine Eagle offense and great defense. Contributing just as much were juniors Bruce Rodwan and Bob Falardeau who pumped in a lot of points and were dangerous on the boards. Reserves Lew Smith and George Morey were good as starters and rescued more than one contest.

Coach Roy Burkhart, head mentor here for 17 years, saw his charges carry out his orders to the word and the results were unbeatable. Burkhart proved himself to be one of the real great coaches in Michigan with this year's team.

State championships have long been thought of as unattainable at Ferndale, but the first one is always the hardest.

FIELD HOCKEY

Girl's sports play an important role in and around Ferndale. They include badminton, softball, tennis, bowling, basketball, and golf. The volleyball team, too, is included in this list. It is composed of two squads who banned forces to meet the more enthusiastic volleyballers among the faculty.

The girl's field hockey team also played an important part in Ferndale's inter-scholastic events. Undefeated except for a Grosse Pointe game these girls celebrated by holding a field hockey—cross country banquet. Another big success was the girl's Ski Club which took groups from its more than 60 members to Holly, Cadillac, and the Irish Hills.

We're all real proud of our record-breaking shark club members, too, who held 8 meets this year. Another outstanding event was the Peter Pan in Aqualand water show put on by the aqua sprites.

Each one of the girl's sports is represented in the GAA executive council. This council has revised the awards and honors system and presented the new Janet Murray Field Hockey award to Penny Monroe. GAA's purpose is to promote good sportsmanship, attitude, group service, and improvement of individual skills among its members.

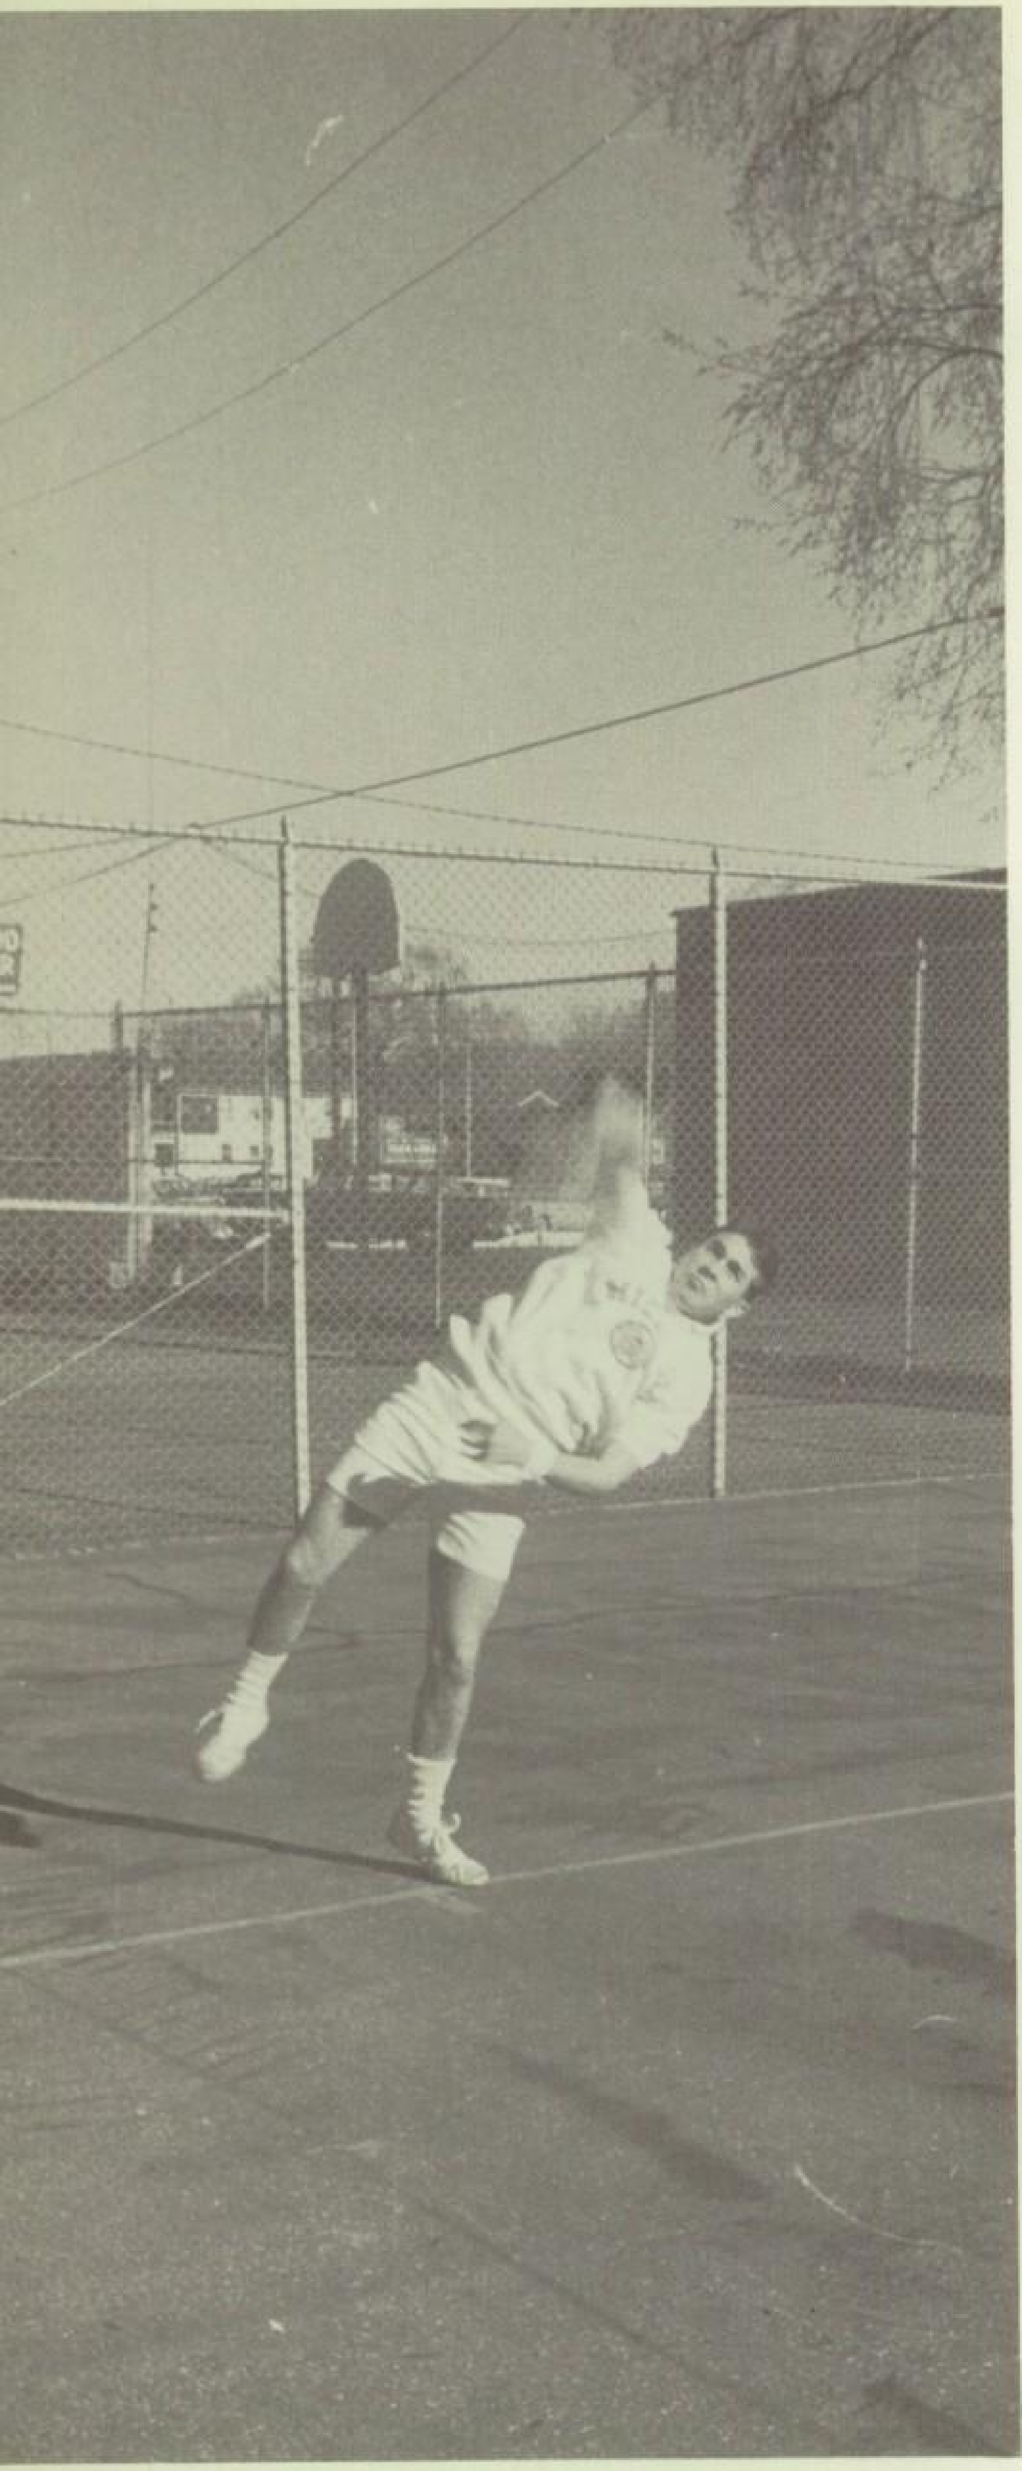
WHAT A RACKET.



Ace!

Walk over to Lincoln some time in April or May. You may see some men in white with "FERNDALE" written across their shirts viciously hitting a small white sphere with long rackets strung with cat-gut. Watch particularly for Dick Stitt. He's definitely top EML material. Jim Wilson strokes hard, too. John Wysner, Carl Lord, Glen Mabee, and Glen Winnie all are superior players. Coach Olson and his boys are really impressive. The Ferndale High tennis team certainly does its share in maintaining our high athletic tradition.

1st row: Tom Evans, Jeff Hetrick, Rick Stitt, Karl Lord, Glen Winnie, Noel Okun
Raymond Zvirbulis, Keith Schulte, Bill Chandler, Fred Hasner, Bob King, 2nd row: Eric Nules, John Mattson, Jim Laugheed, Skip Gates, Mickey Stoffel, Didn't even see it.

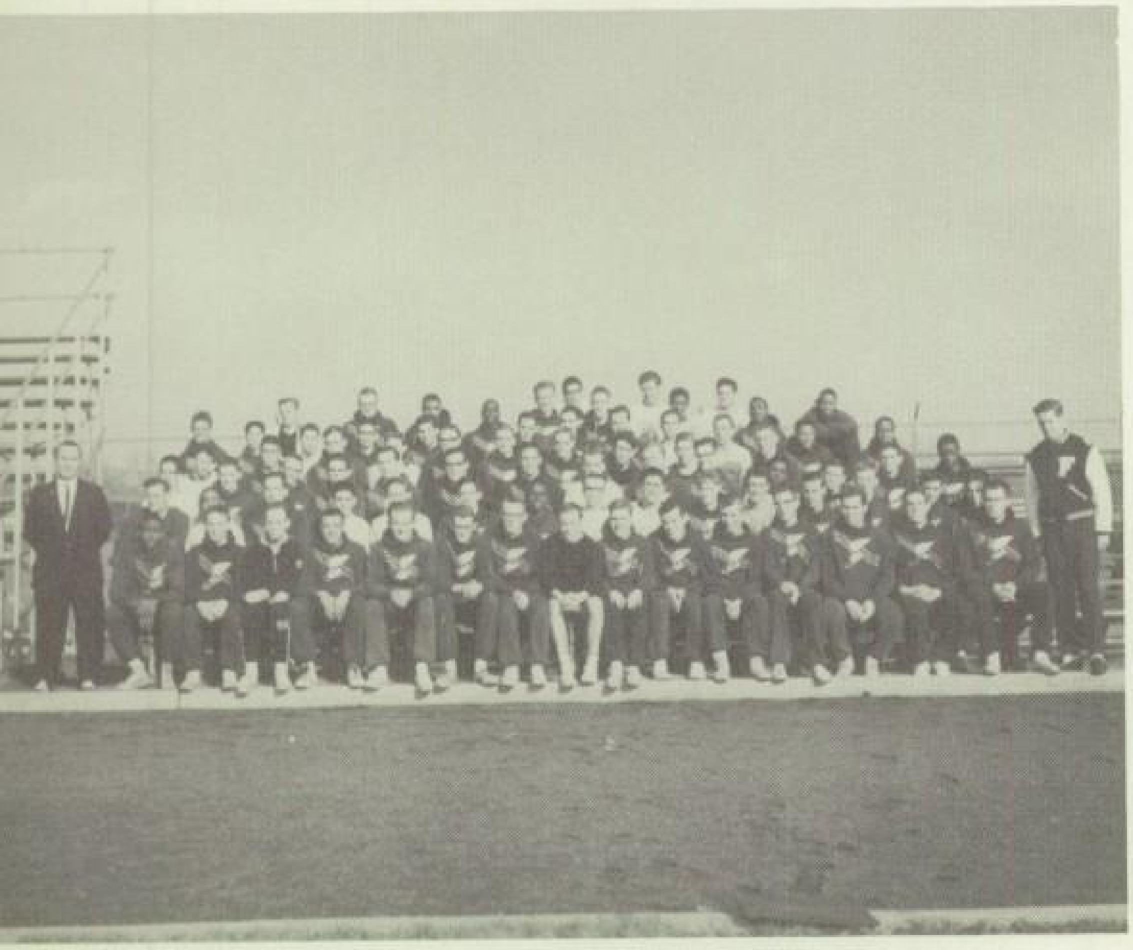
The crack of the ball meeting bat, the slap of the horse hide crashing into a glove, and above all the roar of Coach "Lefty" Brandt signals the arrival of baseball upon Ferndale's sports scene.

The Eagles have always been strong on the diamond and this year will be no exception. Chuck Rinehart, Joe Orloff, Tom Stenback, Bob Super, and George Morey are supplying the hitting punch and fielding superlatives.

It looks like another fine year for "Lefty" and his boys to add on to the long list of great seasons.

AT THE BALL GAME

RUNNING AFTER NEW LAURELS



Track at Ferndale has progressed rapidly in the past few years. Not so long ago the team found itself in the cellar of the league with no wins, but this year promises to be a banner year with aspired hopes for an EML championship.

Mr. Carl welcomes the sight of experienced point-winners from last season. Captain Ed Snook, Mike Treeful, and Roger Williard form a fearful nucleus of distance runners and Leonard Johnson, Paul Seely, and Paul Stuart are formidable competitors in the field events.

Track is a sport where the desire for success must lie in the individual. Concentration and an excess of hard work determine a winner. Competition is ever increasing, but the keener the competition the better our team will be.

4th row: Jim Moody, Bruce Pettigrew, Rick Robertson, Dwight Bonner, John Alwin, Craig Cowell, Bazil Hunt, Joe Taylor, Bob Gray, John Kish

5th row: Bob Griffith, Ken Mogill, Paul Scensny, Roger Fulte, Tim Horst, Bill Perkins, Gordon Aitken, Pete Glynn, Dan Gaynor, Melvin Markham, Nate Tounsel, Howard Bibb

First row: Ken Mogill, Tim Horst, Ron Slenzok, Jim O'Connoll, Roger Willard (Tri-cap), Mike Treeful (Tri-cap), Dale Eiserman, Ernie Snook (Cap-elect), Dave Lequia, Dan Gaynor, Jeff Haslitt. Second row: Mr. Carl, Bob Driggs, Mark Tregonning, Richard Wedlick, Randy Finney, Ed Snook (Tri-cap), Pete O'Connoll, Roger Fultz, John Bartell, Joe Finney, Jim Moody, Carl Griffith, Paul Badgero, Dennis Muller, Bill Richter.

The champs were led both on and off the field by co-captains Mike Treeful and Rodger Willard. Ed Snook, the third captain didn't run, though, because of prolonged illness. In the third position was captain-elect Ernie Snook. The fourth and fifth spots were filled very competently by Dale Eiserman and Jim O'Connell remained undefeated throughout the season as he paced the upcoming reserves.

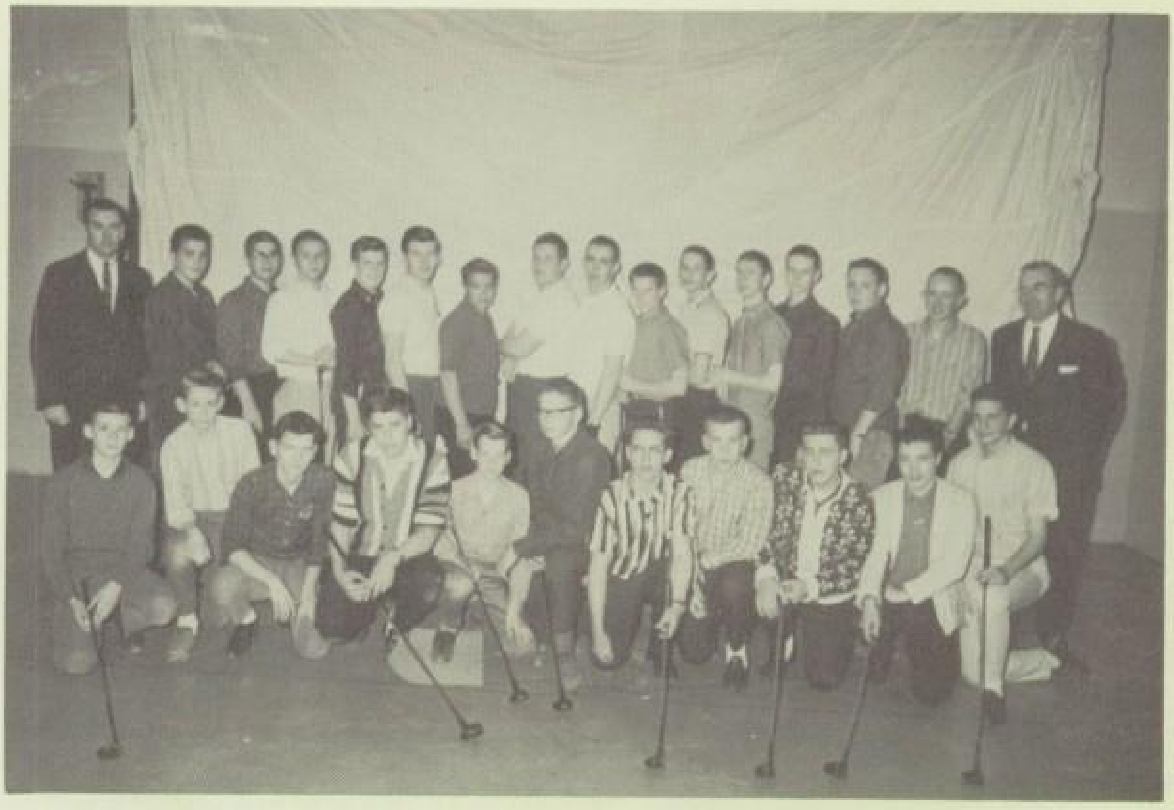
GOLF

ALL TEE'D UP



The mad warm weather rush to the fairways with the little white ball and the long handled club has hit Ferndale with vengence. Golf is on the upswing as a sport here as it is on a national scale.

Coach Tom Parry's duffers have never been pushovers and this year is no exception. The Eagles have always had their share of fine golfers, too. This season, one of the best ever, Don Brooks is leading the charge.

Brooks, one of the best prep golfers in the Detroit area, has been a varsity hacker for four years and is this season's captain. Don Faucher, Bob Fachonie, and Jim Wright are among the others attempting to break par for mighty Ferndale.

1st row: Doug Shirk, Tom Meister, Norman Bachta, Len Purdy, Gary Cady, Bob Fachnie, John Williams, Bruce Nordstrom, Roark Tess, Morley Pulford, Bob Pasick

Background

What does it take to make a well-rounded individual? It is probably more than just the six hour study day in school. It definitely includes a school's activities—the background of a portrait of a high school.

Our students can be seen before school in a noisy, crowded, business-meeting called class congress. After school they may hold an international Christmas party of language clubs. The variety of activities is infinite. Whether skiing down snowy slopes or debating in front of critical judges, activities build character. Whether working on a yearbook or swimming in relay races, activities are an asset to any high school picture.

THE ORGANIZATION PEOPLE

Runnn . . . there goes that bell again! . . . Only 54 minutes and . . . better check . . . 43 seconds to go . . . Wish I had a study hall . . . Let me see — What's on tonight? . . . Think there is a German Club meeting . . . Wonder if he'll be there . . . Better check my hair . . . That's a girl . . . Help! . . . Hi, Mrs. Barit! . . . . But I can't stay after school!

There are other reasons for joining clubs; as the clubs of FHS illustrate. Ferndale has a club for every student and every interest. There are language clubs for people who hate English, a U.N. club for people who like to meddle, and sport clubs for those who believe in President Kennedy's Physical Fitness program. There is a club for every genius, idiot, dummkoph, and even a few for people too. In fact there is a club for every student. Unfortunately not every club has students. So be whatever you really want to be, express yourself! Join a club!

Ferndale United Nations Organization

The Ferndale United Nations Club is open to all students having an interest in world affairs. The club members study the functions and organization of the United Nations. They also participate in an annual meeting of the Michigan United Nations Assembly. This is held as a mock U.N. session, with each school represented by two delegates. The club also planned a field trip to New York to view an actual U.N. session.

Debate

The Forensic society here at Ferndale has had an interesting subject dealing with international affairs. The subject is Resolved: That the United States should join in forming a Common Market among nations of the Western Hemisphere. Varsity debaters Gary Pedersen, Steve Erickson, Ken Haber, Karl Blasius, and Bob Martensen have been discussing this competitively with Kimball, Hazel Park, Roseville, Mt. Clemens, Seaholm, and East Detroit in the E.M.L. and Thurston, Rosary, Pershing, Grosse Pointe, Oak Park, and Our Lady of Mercy in the Detroit Metropolitan League. Ferndale also fields two reserve teams in each Metropolitan debate. Ferndale participates in the Michigan Forensic League which determines the state champions.

In victory or defeat, we feel that debating is a very worthwhile activity. Besides teaching a person to think quickly, take an interest in world affairs, organize, and speak extemporaneously, debate develops the ability to work closely with another person in a team effort so that both debaters know what is going on and do not contradict each other.

Every good student should consider taking advantage of the benefits offered by this activity. Debate begins in September and ends in February during which time the team meets regularly to evaluate research and develop the skills which will help bring it success.

Y-Teens

"MOTHER, LET ME DO IT MYSELF."

To grow as a person, to grow in friendship with people of all races, religions, and nationalities, and to grow in the knowledge and love of God – these are the goals of the Y-Teens.

A social and service club, sponsored by the YWCA and under the excellent supervision of Miss Judith Lantto, it has participated in many of the Y's activities including a slumber party, a state-wide conference, and other services that were beneficial for the school, the community, and themselves.

1st row: Marie Cranshaw, Sandy Calamari, Carol Bartlett, Miss Lanto

Every student who takes the German language is invited to join the German Club. The club, which meets in Mrs. Rakowsky's room, devotes itself to the study of German culture and modern Germany. Meeting every two weeks, members listen to German speakers, see German movies, and participate in the fun-filled social activities. These include an annual winter party, hayrides, splash parties, and dances. In short, the club is a worthy activity for German language students.

Hi-Y

The Yi-Y Club is sponsored by the YMCA and advised by Mr. Kysia. Among their activities is serving on the refreshment truck at football games, and we all know how important refreshments are. They also have guest speakers, dances, and field trips.

This club is an important asset in the school life of the boys who are in it.

Varsity Club

Where there is an athletic event, you can usually find a Varsity Club member. One of the school's most active clubs, this group of letter winning boys always seemed to be on the go.

In football or basketball or almost any other sport, Varsity Club was active in some way. Whether it was selling refreshments or programs or the behind the scenes work of making programs or helping to organize some sports event – Varsity Club was there working hard.

For the twenty odd members of the Club it has been a busy year but a fruitful one.

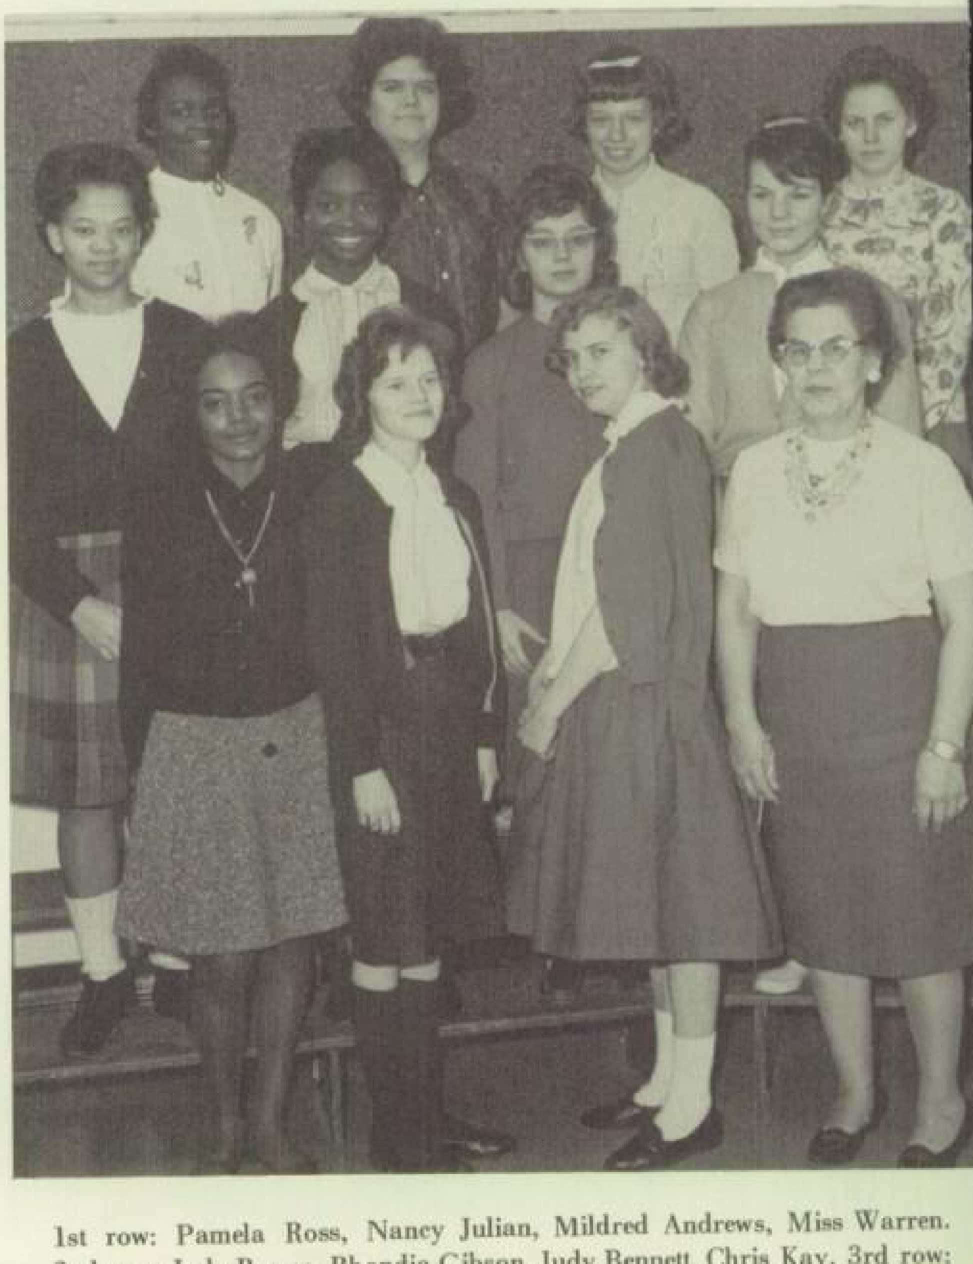
As usual, Thespians make themselves known when they present the annual Interclass One-Act Plays. In addition to this they hold regular workshops to paint scenery and to make props in preparation for various plays.

Anyone interested in dramatics or stage works is always welcome.

"I thought we left that guy with the camera at Ferndale."

Business Club

Business Club offers an opportunity for all business minded students to participate in first hand business experiences. The club's activities include field trips, interviews with nearby firms, and interesting lectures. Members join in discussions about the problems of modern day industry. The club is a worthwhile activity for all interested students.



1st row: Pamela Ross, Nancy Julian, Mildred Andrews, Miss Warren. 2nd row: Judy Brown, Rhondia Gibson, Judy Bennett, Chris Kay. 3rd row: Zeneta Gibson, Carol Koons, Linda Gardner, Sandra Settle.

Abstracts

Any interested junior or senior may join the Abstracts, our school's cultural club. Along with Miss Craig, their sponsor, they attend such things as symphony concerts and art exhibits. One of the new activities introduced by the Abstracts this year is a ballroom dancing class. Also, this year, as last year, they are editing the cultural magazine, Parnassus, a collection of creative writing by the students.

Library Club

This club is made up of students interested in library work. Club members obtain actual experience in the library by working during study halls. The members attend library teas, and once a year they join the meeting of the Student Librarians Association. Mrs. Markle is the sponsor of this worthwhile school organization.

MECHANICAL STAFF

Students run around frantically. Shouts, howls, bangs, clangs, and other similar sounds reverberate through the halls. Glue, pictures, tables, and people are strewn about. It's the TALON room where a yearbook must be made.

Although apparently confused and somewhat disorganized, the members of the staff in reality work diligently, attempting to put out their best efforts. Whatever the quality of the book, it is at least a symbol of hard working and persevering students.

There is a unique pleasure in receiving the school paper. It may be because, in a sense, the Eagle is a part of each of us. The student body enjoys reading about itself.

All the F.H.S. events, from sports to dances, from variety shows to student trips, are covered by our ever-curious student reporters. Also, pupils have a chance to give their opinions on timely school issues. The journalism class and the mechanical staff have been invaluable assets to the Eagle. Co-editors Bill Schmidt and Mary Brooks have devoted much time and effort to our journal. A truly remarkable EAGLE has been produced.

The magic fingers of Ray Zvirbulis.

After months of planning, auditioning, and rehearsing, the P.T.S.A.'s joint project with Student Council, the Eagle Eye Revue, was presented on March 21 and 22.

Each year at this time the talented students of FHS come together to put on a spectacular variety show. This year's theme was "Around the World in 120 Minutes."

Mr. Robert O'Hara, our very capable M.C., traveled with the audience, from China to look at Mary Brooks and Joan Weinhart performing a new dance–stopping off to see the new exciting ballet performance–then dashing back to the good old U.S.A. in time to revue Raymond Zvirbulis, the new piano sensation, give his interpretations – Kurt Melstrom giving his premiere performance on the composition ("Weep No More") he wrote – also the "teen-age" idol, Jeff Hicks giving the finale.

The show was a complete success due to the efficient manner these girls – Bonnie La Gasse, Tammie King, Nora Fisher, Cheryl Topping, and Mary Beth Anderson – operated the production scene this year.

THE WORK

"WAKE UP, Juniors!"

Alakazam! Alakazee! Poof! Election magic is strong! It transforms the commons into a bizarre wilderness of posters, papers, tags, and acres of milling people, loudly promising campaigners, and even louder playing bands. TENSION BUILDS! First in line are the primaries . . . . A lot of hopes are raised and a lot of plans are spoiled. Next are the annual class assemblies where the lucky(?) candidates who survived the primaries tell their class what they would hope to accomplish if elected.

"So this is what a float is supposed to look like."

Notice the order of this Senior Class Congress meeting.

4th row: Carl Roeser, Ray Zvirbulis, Bob Pollefeyt, Tom Stenback, Noel Okum, Jim Fleaharty, Terry Allen, Carl Ahlstrom, Ricky Maynard, Ken Gay, Bill Eichen

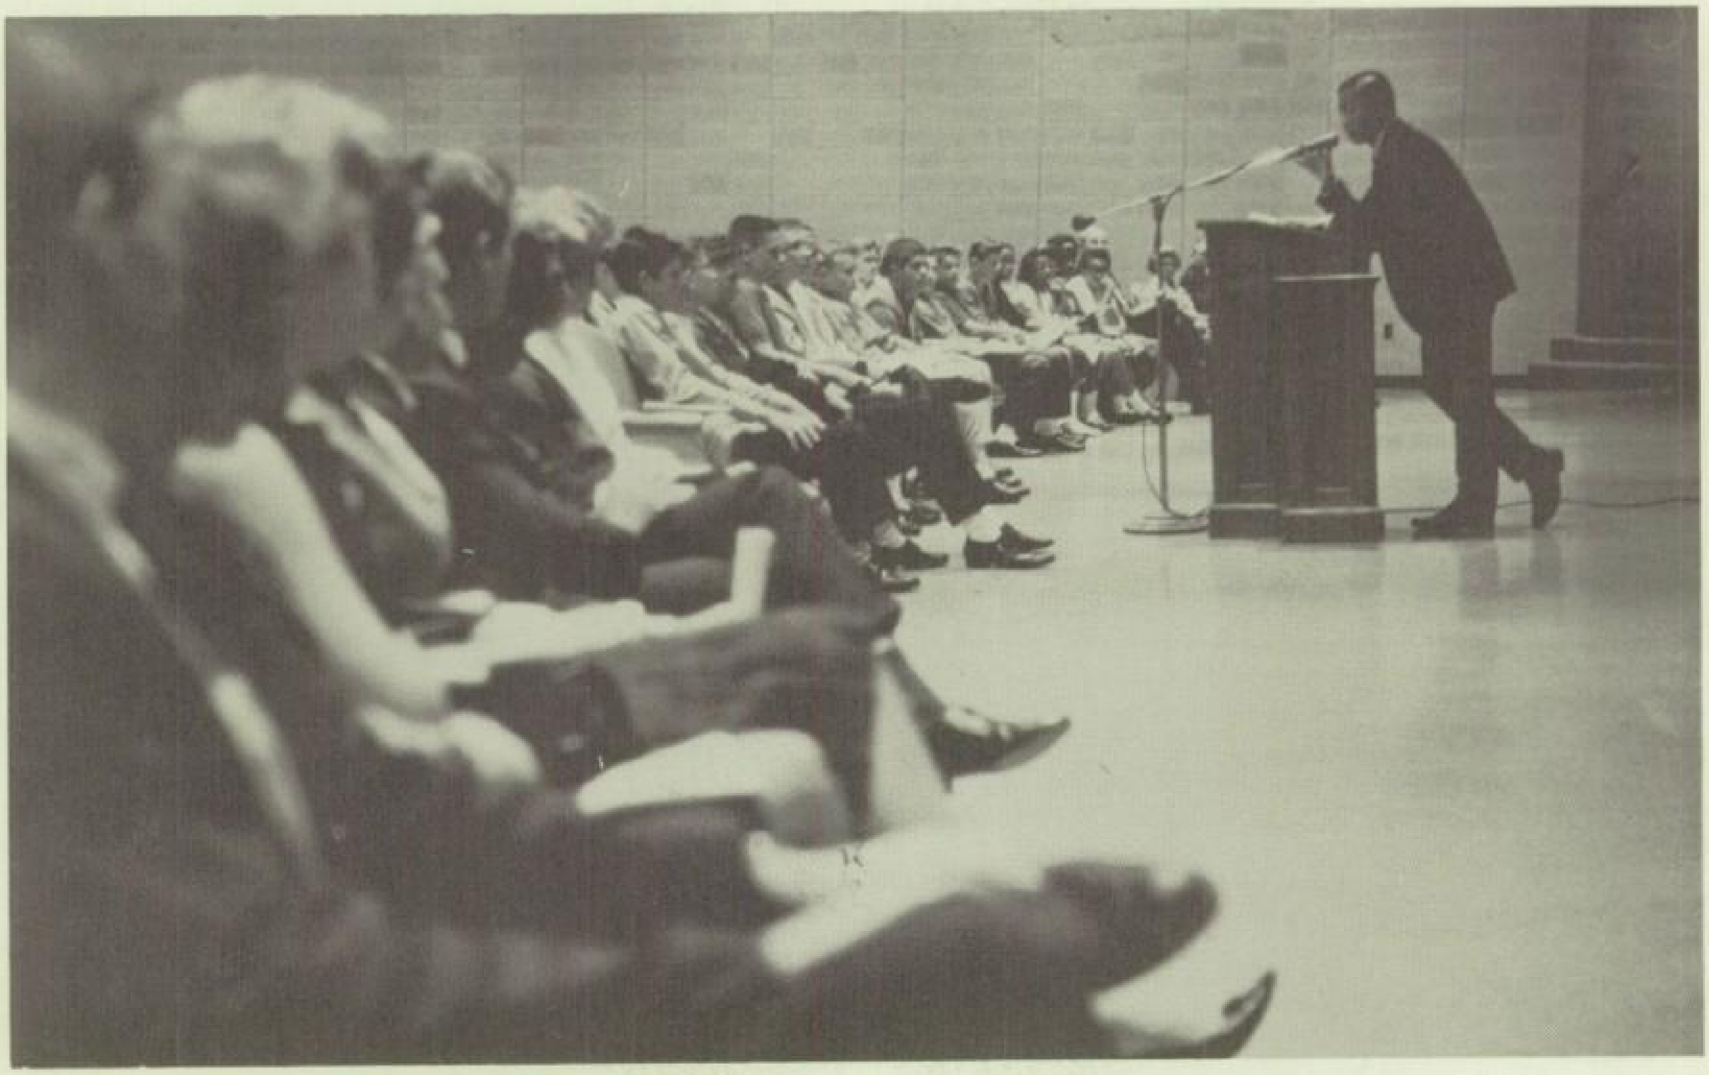
"No, I won't leave a tip."

STUDENT COUNCIL

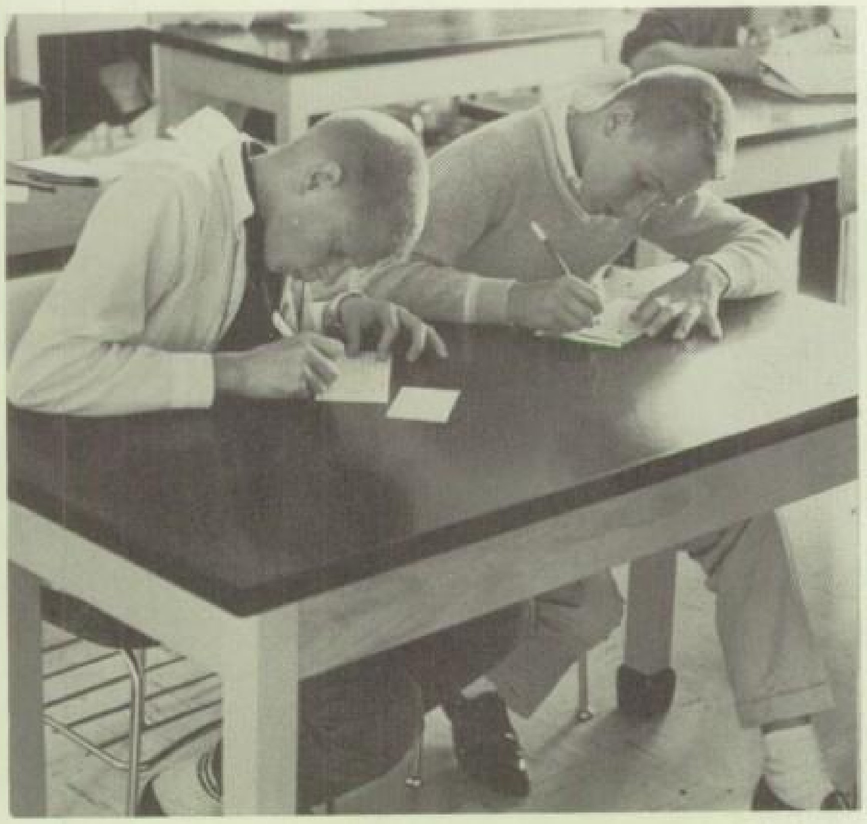
Under the competent guidance of Mr. John Clark and President Steve Hu our Student Council this year was one of the most active ever. Besides its five officers and twenty elected members, twenty-two honoraries have been voted in for outstanding participation this year.

The Student Council Shoeshine, one of the traditional activities of Council, was a big success, as was the annual Homecoming Dance and all the other football and basketball dances put on by Council. Along with the Class Congresses, Student Council also participated in a campaign to boost school and class spirit. Suggestion boxes were set up all over the school and the many replies were used for the improvement of Council. On the whole the Student Council has contributed more than its share in making this year at FHS the greatest ever.

THE FRESHMEN



Freshmen listen attentatively to Student Council President Steve Hu.



"What's my name again?"

"It's the one marked 'Women'."

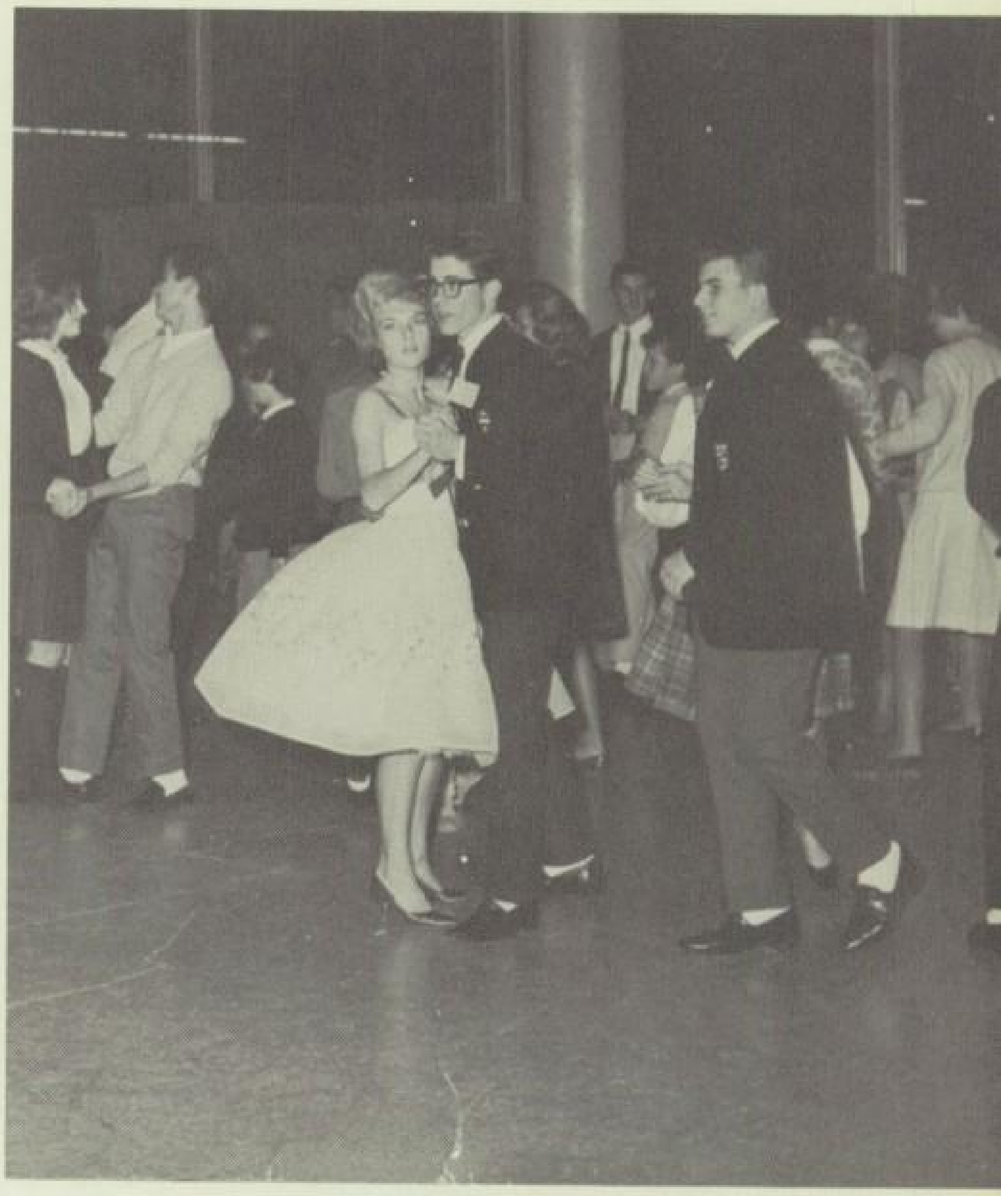
THEY CAME . . .

On September 5, 1962, Ferndale High School was overrun by some 700 stunned freshmen. At the very first they were lost in our wonderful school, but orientation helped to make them feel more at ease. They were able to make new friends and become acquainted with their teachers.

But tension soon mounted again as the "Freshies" were faced with the wonders of class elections and the problems of Homecoming float. "Should I run?" and "Do you think I will make the primaries?" were questions asked often. "What should the theme be?" and "Where will we get the money?" added to the float problems. It was utter chaos! Elections came and went, but to top it all off the freshmen took first place in the float judging.

The highlight of the year was the "Freshman Mixer." The Freshman Class Congress worked hard to put on their first dance. Though they were inexperienced, they "learned the ropes" quickly. Besides the great turnout, the crowning of the Frosh Queen added to the excitement. The dance was a great success.

At last the freshmen are considered part of the Ferndale High School. They've taken a step up the ladder. Next year they will be able to laugh at the new group of naive students – the freshmen class!



"I think someone is staring at us."

Frosh Chrissy Wiegan is crowned "Queen for a year."

SADIE HAWKINS

WAS SENSATIONAL

On your mark, get set, GO . . . . This is what it's like at the last minute when the girls finally decide that they can ask a boy for a date. Phones are kept busy as the football and basketball stars are ploughed with invitations. The big problems are what to wear and how to get there. The week prior to the Sadie Hawkins' Dance is filled with experimenting with short tattered skirts, straw hats, and painted freckles. The fun-filled night arrives and everyone finds out that it really is fun to square dance and get "married."

IT WAS A MOONLIT MAJESTY

"Oh, my a'chin' feet."

It started with the Bossa Nova.

Time, worry, and hard work . . . all face those who work on the Prom. But all problems fade away as the big evening draws closer and anticipation, preparation, and enjoyment take over.

For the Senior, the Prom is a fitting, gay climax . . . for the little sophomore, it's a glimpse into a grown-up world of color and sound.

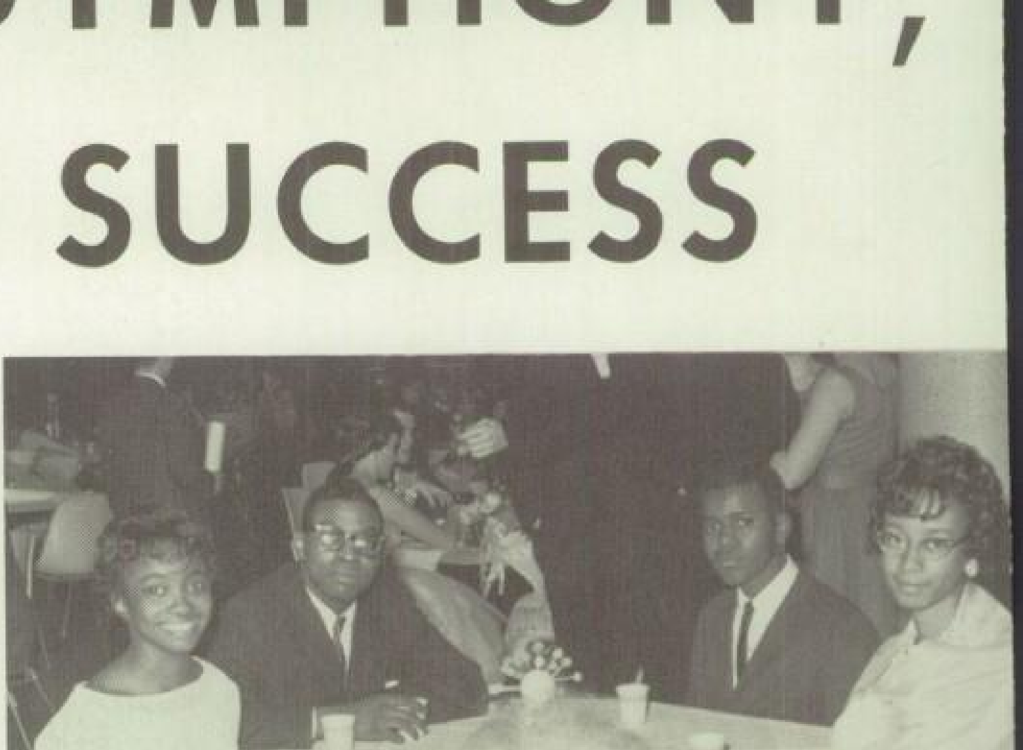
For three much-too-short hours they live in a magical world of castles and soft lights, flowers and charm. Too soon it's over . . . the Prom but not the evening! Determined to make the most of a heavenly evening, couples head for Port Huron, Canada, Detroit, and any place where there is good food and lots of other people.

The lucky ones manage a few hours sleep before morning when it's time to start again. The local beaches were packed, and fatigue, poison ivy, and sunburn were common. But despite all this, all agree IT WAS WORTH IT!

Have tux, will travel.

SUGAR SYMPHONY, A SWEET SUCCESS

"Aw, you say the sweetest things."



"Why can't we eat the centerpiece?"

The commons never looked better.

The commons and cafeteria become an almost mystic, dream-like candy ballroom. Adding to the beauty were the students dressed in handsome suits or charming gowns, depending naturally on the sex of the individual. And to frost the sweetest of cakes were strains of heavenly music from Ralph Bowen's band. It was truly a magnificent success for the class of '63.

The spiders had to work overtime for this.

WE KNOW WHAT

A quiet Thursday night at home.

Page 92 and 93, problems . . . .

"What Ever Happened to Cinderella is playing at Ferndale High."

The senior class of '63 outdid themselves in the production of "Whatever Happened to Cinderella," the annual senior play.

The play presented Cinderella not as the sweet, mistreated girl whom we know from the fairy tale, but as a self-centered, sarcastic snob who could only find pleasure in hurting her father.

Under the fine direction of Mr. Ford, the cast gave a hilariously satirical performance of the well-loved story. To all the players and especially Mr. Ford we acknowledge a hearty "Well done."

HAPPENED TO CINDERELLA

"Behind the scenes of a Senior play."

A last moment of glory.

A FINAL SUMMATION

A View of Graduation

A Freshman:

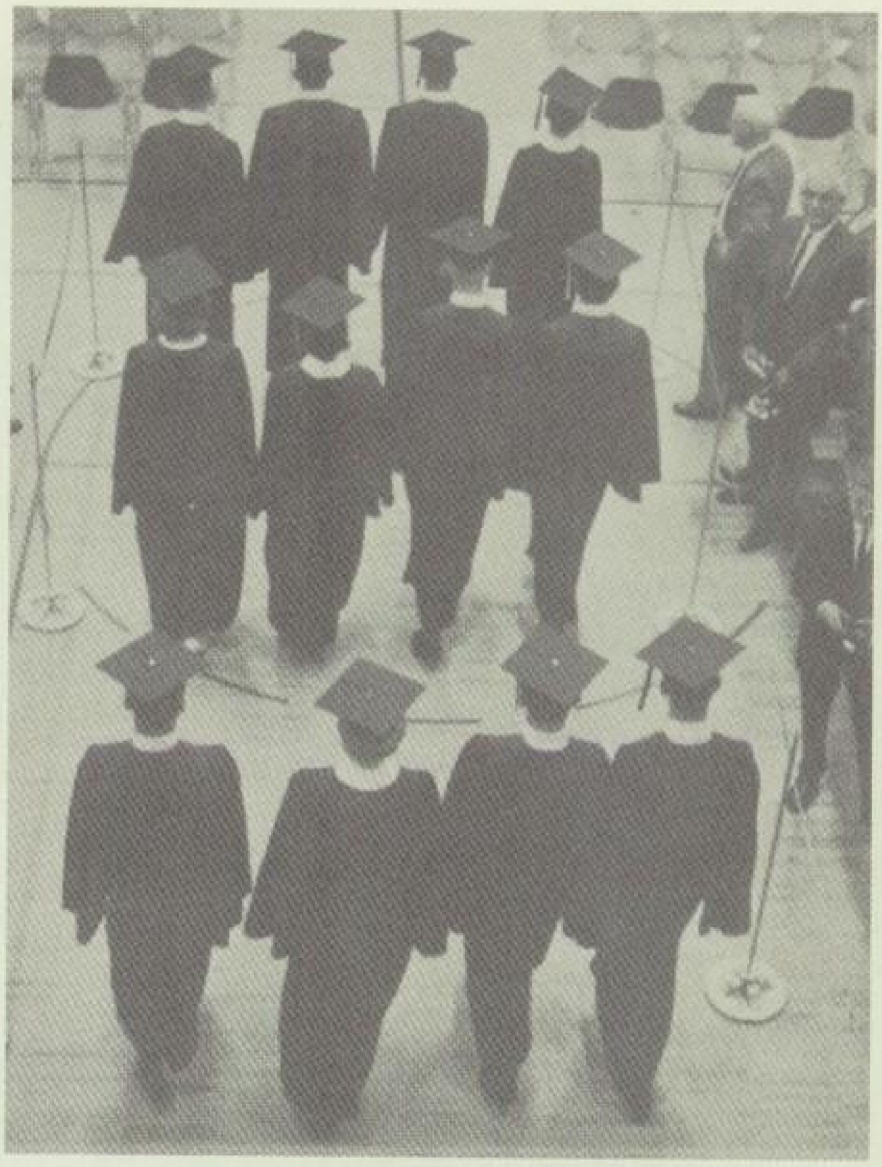
There's something special about being a Senior. I look up to them and forward to the day when I'll be one – if I ever make it! Graduation must be the most important day in their lives. They look so poised and mature, so sure of themselves. I'm awfully glad I still have three more years at Ferndale, but I envy their accomplishments. They have so much to do!

A Graduating Senior!

A graduating senior is supposed to feel a sense of achievement and pride when they graduate, but the deepest feeling I have was one of loss and finish. No amount of practice could dull the impact of our first march to "Pomp and Circumstance," or the look on our classmates' faces at Convocation. Never before had we felt so apart from the other three classes. They were watching us leave. Baccalaureate stirred us all, but Commencement was the climax. This was it. After Commencement there would be no more.

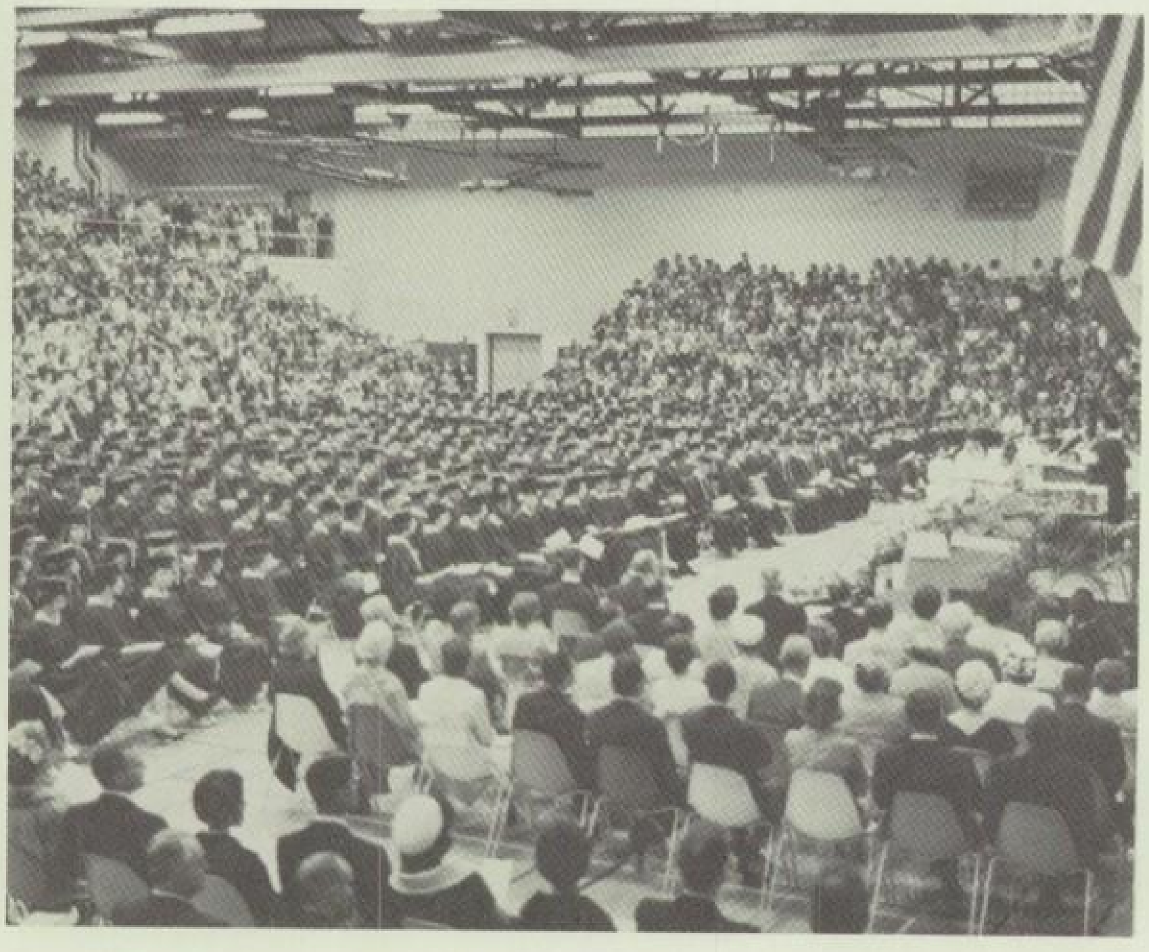
An Alumnus:

It's been two years since I graduated, and I still feel nostalgic when I remember those flurried last weeks. I remember the emotions we felt . . . that we'd never have so much fun or be so close again. Well, we went on to college and the armed services or settled down to married life. We matured and found new horizons. Yet, Graduation and Ferndale High School never quite faded into memory. We still feel thrilled and proud when a Ferndale student receives a Merit Scholarship or becomes a foreign exchange student. As alumni we still support enthusiastically Ferndale's football and basketball teams . . . because Ferndale is still and will always be "Our School."



"Quit stepping on my robe."

Four years come before our eyes.



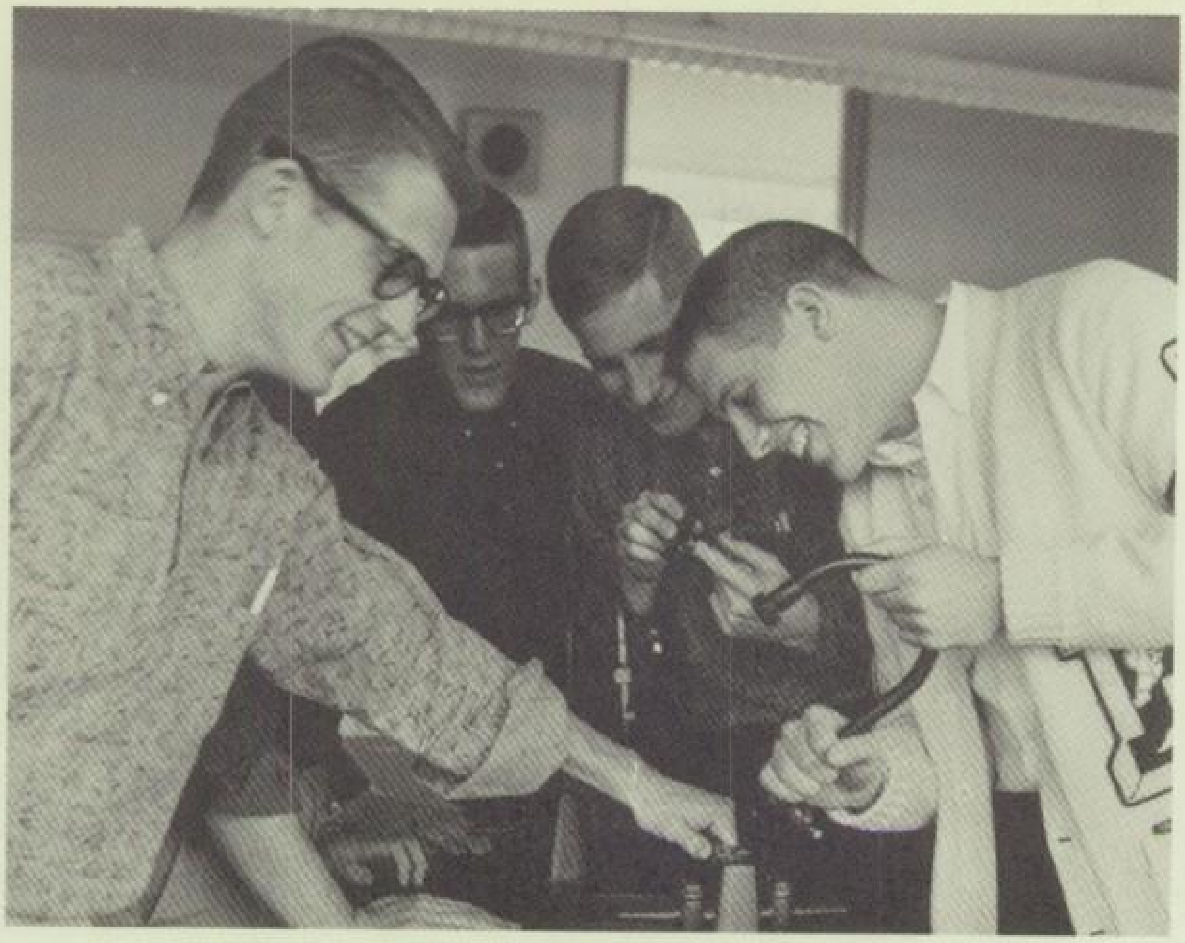
Sadly, we say adieu.

A SENIOR FAREWELL

It seems we were just Freshmen,

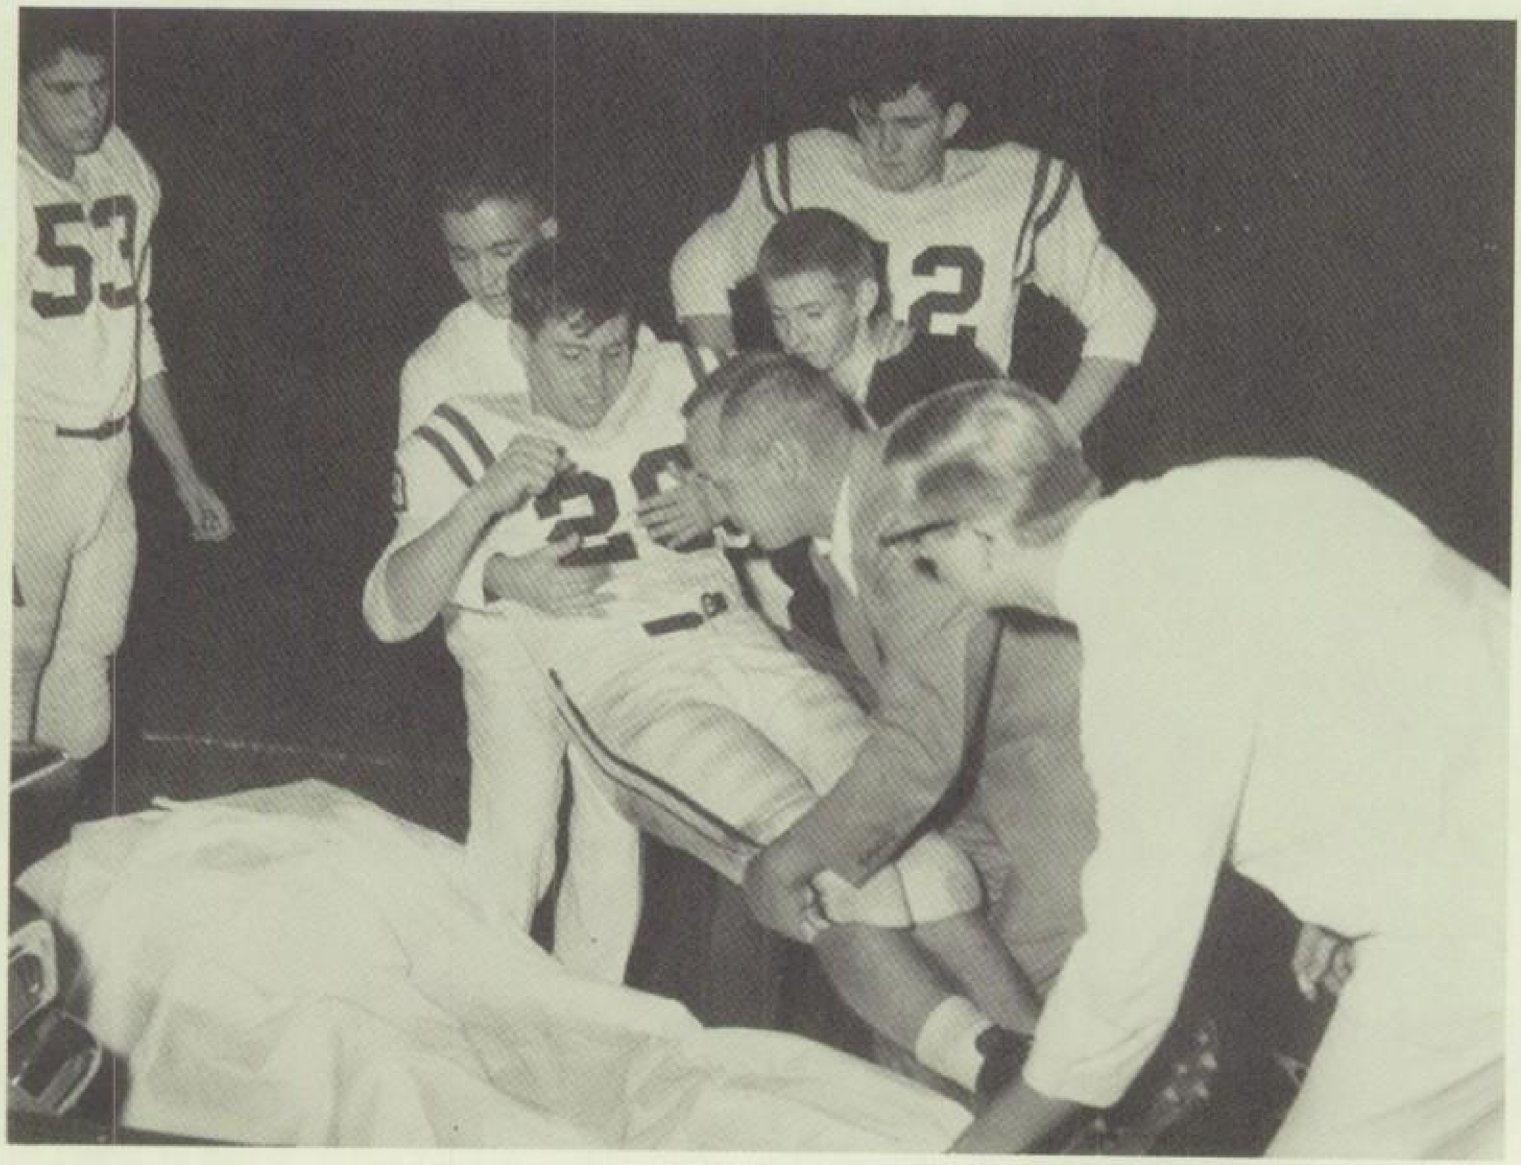
Sophomores,

or Juniors.



We're finally mature (?) Seniors.

It'll be hard to forget our friends: the athletes,



the crazy ones,

the musicians,

the happy ones,

the studious,

the workers.

We sadly say good-bye to Ferndale High School and raise the flag of the future.

If one was to build a student
That is a teacher's dream;
He'd no doubt be an intellect,
And always on the beam.

His manners would be courteous,
His appearance always clean;
And he'd have a letter sweater
On which four strips are seen.

But he must have school spirit,
And let this in him abound;
And if you should quest to find him,
You need merely look around.

For you'll find him all about you,
For everyone to see
Who else is this I speak of,
But the senior, '63.

To our advertisers, without whose support this yearbook would have been far from a possibility, we wish to express our heartfelt thanks. Time and again the advertisers' cooperation and backing is displayed, not only in this publication, but throughout our high school enterprises. We find Ferndale merchants and businessmen buying space in the Eagle, our school newspaper, and lending their merchandise for use in the all-school play. This ready willingness to support on the part of the businessmen of Ferndale exemplifies the civic minded and openhanded spirit the community of Ferndale seems to possess.

Well, Kuj—

It's been another year! Too bad we don't know many "friends" in common. We've had a lot of fun this year. I adore your car. Nice that you can take the time to listen to all of my problems— So bad you're a PR— but I'll forgive you— Diane

Dear Miss
Kujala
To are fearless leader. That finally shape up so we wouldn't have to ship you out
Have fun bombing around this summer. Lot of luck.
"Chuck."

Dear miss Kujala,

Well, the year's over and there's money in the bank. Have a good summer and do carouse about town. your car is neat, you might stop some time in the morning. anyway, see you in the fall when we're juniors (not you) Bob Martensen

Kuj,

I'm not gonna write a lotta bull and put that you're been the nicest AND best teacher I've ever had. But really you've been pretty good so far so let's keep it up for finals. Just call me if you need any desks washed. I have to keep in practice.

Love Always? (Finky)
your ALL 'A' student
Jina — May you Always remember me.
how can you forget?
Lots of Luck — your gonna need it
you still owe me a coke from happy's

Miss Kuj,

you have more than hurt me by telling me that you would be more than happy to read my entry in your book and then neglecting to do so — that misteak was when you gave me my failing report card you think

Kuj,
To a real cool
teacher, even though
you don't act like one.
Better luck next time
we go bowling. Take it cool next year. Be good. And practice bowling
Elaine.

Hi Teri!
Well another year. By By.
See you next.
Be a good teacher.
Lorraine.

Kuj:
So how are you
gonna go thru-out
the summer without me?? A pity you!.
So, be cool during the summer. O.K.?? What do you mean no?? [illegible]
Judy

Kuj,
To a real swingin
teacher who's been
alot of fun goofin around with!! Good luck with all the
ride in the future
Be cool!
